

Canada Faces Request To Send Planes To Berlin

No Return To Price Control, Commons Told

OTTAWA (CP)—The federal government has no intention of returning to a system of over-all price and wage controls, Finance Minister Abbott reiterated in the Commons today.

The minister was replying to opposition questioning as to whether the government was going to implement recommendations of the Commons prices committee for restoration of partial controls and living-cost subsidies.

Stanley Knowles, C.C.F., Winnipeg North Centre, asked if the Prices Board had made plans for re-imposition of some controls and subsidies "in anticipation of" implementation of the committee's recommendations. Mr. Knowles expressed the hope this might be done.

Mr. Abbott replied the board's machinery still remained. "The basic question is whether the government's policy will be changed to meet the recommendations?" the C.C.F. member asked.

Mr. Abbott nodded.

1,277 EMPLOYEES
He said the board now had 1,277 employees, against 3,920 a year ago.

Mr. Knowles asked if this was enough to do an effective job of implementing the committee's recommendations.

The minister said the extent to which the government might re-embark on controls would govern the number of employees needed.

"But," he added, "it is not the intent of the government to go back to over-all price and wage controls."

Weary Legislators Working To Bring Session To Close

OTTAWA (CP)—With prorogation in sight, the Commons worked busily today to complete business. There even was talk about what will be done at Parliament's next session.

Labor Minister Mitchell said a committee on government annuities would be set up next year. Prime Minister King said the government would ask for approval of the Geneva trade agreement at the next session.

Opposition members tried again—unsuccessfully—to learn when the government intends to lift the 25 per cent excise taxes on the embargo on beef cattle shipments to the United States.

The House sat through to 2 p.m. Guesses were that prorogation would come by late afternoon or early evening.

Flood Fund Tops $2,000,000 Mark

VANCOUVER (CP)—The B.C. flood emergency fund topped the $2,000,000 mark today. Fund Chairman Austin C. Taylor reported total administration expenses of less than $150. Over 3,000 families will need assistance, and 2,000 homes will need refurbishing.

Servicemen Quitting Work On Fraser; Returning Home

VANCOUVER (CP)—"Stand Down" has been sounded along the Fraser River battle front.

With the Mission gauge below the 18-foot safety mark, army and navy authorities are pulling in the men who fought Canada's greatest peace-time battle.

Navy rosters which at one time listed 750 men in the embattled area today are being wiped clean. Seamen and officers who manned everything from rowboats to big tugs will doff their gumboots and get back into the of-

2 Survive 3 Days In Gulf Of Mexico As Others Sought

CEDAR KEY, Fla. (AP)—A harrowing story of three days without food and drinking water in the Gulf of Mexico after the fishing boat Hazel had exploded and burned was told today by two survivors of the ill-fated craft.

Mrs. Merle Potts and William Sanders, both of Ocala, Fla., were found Tuesday. The body of Mrs. Ted Hill, a third member of the party of 14 aboard the 38-foot boat, was found off Snake Key by persons who joined in the surface hunt.

Sheriff G. T. Robbins said Sanders told him four other members of the party may be alive. They broke away from a group of nine survivors clinging together in the water Monday morning and swam for an island. That was the last Sanders saw of them.

Two of the remaining five sank Monday night, including Sanders' wife. Mrs. Hill went down Tuesday morning.

Sanders and Mrs. Potts, rescued from Sea Horse Island by Collier, were suffering from exposure, shock and numerous scratches which Sanders said were made by needle fish.

Farm Girl Walks In Sleep; Killed

BIRMINGHAM, Iowa (AP)—Wilda Kerr, 15-year-old farm girl, died today of injuries suffered when she fell from a windmill she had climbed while sleepwalking.

Coroner Harold Catcott said.

Two rebel brigades occupied both sides of the Preveza road in a surprise manoeuvre Tuesday and chopped off the supply route for three army divisions.

Cominform Quits Belgrade; Split Reported Not Final

BELGRADE (CP)—The Cominform headquarters is to be moved from Belgrade, it was learned today.

It was reliably reported the new headquarters of the International Communist Information Bureau will be in Bucharest, where the recent Cominform meeting which expelled Yugoslavia from the organization took place.

(Several Reuters' dispatches from Belgrade referred to the "expulsion" of Yugoslavia from the Cominform. The Associated Press has not reported expulsion, but has said the Cominform accused Yugoslavia of pursuing a hateful policy towards Russia.)

The editorial office of the Cominform will also be established in Bucharest and its fortnightly bulletins will be published there henceforth.

It was reliably reported this move did not signify a final split, but that sooner or later the Yugoslavs would reaffiliate with the original nine-power Cominform.

Premier Tito, Alexander Rankovic, minister of the interior, and other Communist leaders were reported in conference here today.

Yugoslavia May Get $30,000,000

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—United States and Yugoslavia were reported near final agreement today on a financial deal which would net Marshal Tito's government about $30,000,000.

The extended negotiations over this money accord may have been one of the issues that set off the Cominform attack Monday against the Belgrade chief.

Washington officials, watching Tito's defiance of the Communist high command with obvious surprise and delight, were silent on any possible connection between the financial deal and the Yugoslav-Cominform scrap.

For several months the United States government has been seeking payment of about $20,000,000 in claims for American property nationalized in Yugoslavia. Tito, on the other hand, has been laying claim to some $50,000,000 in Yugoslav assets which the United States froze in 1941 to keep it out of Axis hands.

Greek Troops Press Attack On Rebels

ATHENS (AP)—Government troops are attacking Communist guerrillas who cut the army's main supply line 11 miles south of Igannina in northwestern Greece, press dispatches said today.

Two rebel brigades occupied both sides of the Preveza road in a surprise manoeuvre Tuesday and chopped off the supply route for three army divisions.

Farm Girl Walks In Sleep; Killed

BIRMINGHAM, Iowa (AP)—Wilda Kerr, 15-year-old farm girl, died today of injuries suffered when she fell from a windmill she had climbed while sleepwalking.

Coroner Harold Catcott said.

July 1 will be a holiday for this newspaper. The next regular editions will be issued Friday.

Railways Willing Meet Pay Boost Board Suggested

MONTREAL (CP)—A government-appointed mediation board resumed sittings today in Montreal in another attempt to avert a threatened rail strike that would tie up the Canadian railroads from coast to coast.

The board, reconstituted from the conciliation board which first dealt with the question, resumed its hearings only one day after Frank H. Hall, chairman of the negotiating committee of the 18 international brotherhoods involved, had set July 15 as the strike deadline.

Hall, in a note to the railways Tuesday, said if the union's demands go unmet, a strike would be called at 6 a.m. regional time, July 15.

The railways answered Hall's note, saying they were ready to join in negotiations for a seven-cent increase as recommended by the board in majority reports.

The railway's letter was signed jointly by N. B. Walton, executive vice-president of Canadian National Railways, and D. I. McNeill, K.C., vice-president of personnel for the Canadian Pacific Railway, and copies were sent to the Prime Minister, Minister of Labor Mitchell and to Mr. Justice J. C. A. Cameron, chairman of the conciliation board.

The letter said in part: "We must express considerable surprise that in all negotiations and proceedings that have followed the report of the conciliation board appointed by the Minister of Labor and which recommended an increase of seven cents per hour, no recognition has been given by your organization either to the recommendation contained in the report or the reasons that led to that recommendation."

"The board found that the railways were unable to meet the additional expense involved in an increase in wages, stating that it was clearly demonstrated there was no operating surplus with which to pay an increase."

"The railways, however, have agreed to accept the recommendation of the conciliation board that wage rates be increased seven cents per hour."

New Air Parcel Post
WASHINGTON (AP)—Air parcel post service, within the United States and its possessions, is authorized for the first time under a bill signed Tuesday by President Truman. The service will begin Sept. 1.

3 Persons Drown In Alberta Lake

CALGARY (CP)—Three persons were drowned when their boat capsized at Chestermere Lake, 10 miles east of Calgary, Tuesday night.

Dead are Margaret Petzel and Raymond G. Snider, both of Strathmore, Alta., and Marion Lynton, 40, of Regina.

Duncan Kennedy Will Head Schools Assessment Board

D. K. KENNEDY

The provincial government today set up a three-man assessment equalization board to bring school tax assessments into line in component parts of the province's 70-odd school districts.

Head of the board will be Duncan K. Kennedy, former Victoria building inspector and Vancouver Island director of the federal government's Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation. Mr. Kennedy will also serve as building supervisor to advise Education Minister W. T. Straith on erection of new school buildings throughout the province.

R. R. F. SEWELL

Richard R. F. Sewell, secretary of the Union of B.C. Municipalities and former Saanich municipal clerk, will serve on the board as U.B.C.M. representative, while William T. Turnbull will represent the provincial government on the board. Mr. Turnbull, provincial assessor at Kamloops, previously served as provincial assessor at Comox for 10 years.

While Mr. Kennedy will serve as a full-time official in the two capacities as board chairman and assessor, Mr. Straith, other members of the board will continue their present duties after the complaints on file have been dealt with.

Premier Hints Grave Significance; Other Dominions Solicited

Mystery Ends

LONDON (AP)—Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia visited building construction sites near Belgrade this afternoon, the Belgrade radio said tonight.

It was the first definite disclosure of Tito's whereabouts since Monday's attack by the Cominform on his leadership of the Yugoslav Communist Party.

The announcement of his appearance in Belgrade was monitored here by Tanjug, the official Yugoslav news agency.

LATEST Ambassador Reports

LONDON (Reuters)—Sir Charles Peake, British ambassador in Belgrade, is expected in London tonight to report to Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin on the situation in Yugoslavia following the International Communist Information Bureau's denunciation of the Yugoslav Communist leaders.

U.S. Plans Action

WASHINGTON (AP)—State Secretary Marshall said today the United States will "deal promptly" with basic questions raised by the Soviet blockade of Berlin. But he gave no hint what action is contemplated. Marshall said "we intend to stay" in Berlin.

No Joint Candidates

CALGARY (CP)—Officials of the Alberta and Calgary Liberal associations today flatly denied reports from Edmonton that they were considering submitting a joint slate of candidates with Alberta's Independent Party at the next provincial election. J. Percy Page of Edmonton is leader of Alberta's Independent Party.

Plan For Germany

FRANKFURT (AP)—Top U.S., British and French occupation authorities worked out a plan here today for creating a new central government for Western Germany. Allied commanders said they would meet with German authorities tomorrow to set the plan into motion.

Greeks Hear Guns From Yugoslavia

ATHENS (AP)—A spokesman for the Foreign Ministry said heavy machine-gun and mortar fire were heard again today in Yugoslavia just across the border from Florina. He said the firing also was heard Tuesday.

OTTAWA (CP)—Canada was confronted today with a request to take part in the British-U.S. aerial measures to buck the Russian blockade of Berlin, and her government was in silent, secretive consultation.

Prime Minister King intimated to the Commons the importance attached to the British request for all available Canadian transport aircraft when he parried questions and termed it a matter of "far reaching" significance. He declined to say whether an answer would come later today.

One ministerial source said the government was faced with the task of deciding whether it wanted to send Canadian planes into a tense situation that could conceivably explode into active hostilities.

On the other hand, a Canada which has been calling for active defence co-operation among the free nations and an Atlantic defensive union, is suddenly asked to do something to meet an immediate situation involving the Russia she has branded as the only potential aggressor in the world.

Defence sources said no requests had been made to them. Dispatches from London said Britain had asked the four senior Dominions for transport aircraft to help the British and U.S.

Britain May Approach Kremlin

LONDON (AP)—Foreign Secretary Bevin said today the Western Allies are considering a direct approach to the Kremlin in an attempt to settle the Berlin crisis.

Bevin made his statement in a House of Commons debate on Germany. In reply to a suggestion from Anthony Eden, Deputy Conservative leader, for a joint British-French note to Moscow the Foreign Secretary said:

"The point made by Mr. Eden of dealing with it (the crisis) in Moscow at the appropriate moment is very much in our minds."

Eden said Moscow is where Soviet power "ultimately lies."

If Britain were to withdraw from Berlin "the effect on our authority and that of our allies in western Europe would be catastrophic," Eden said.

Earlier Bevin had said the western powers were determined to fly food into Berlin despite the risk of trouble with Russia.

A government source close to the Cabinet said the three western powers had already begun consultations on the form and language the communication to Moscow would take.

This was reported one of the topics of Bevin's meeting today with the U.S. and French Ambassadors, Lewis Douglas and Rene Massigli.

4 Killed, 50 Hurt In Train Accident

SYDNEY, Australia (CP)—Four persons were killed and 50 injured today when a passenger train jumped the track near Harden, New South Wales, and plowed into an embankment. Many of the 123 passengers were immigrants who arrived in Australia only Tuesday.

N.H.A. Loans To Assist Flood Sufferers In B.C.

OTTAWA (CP)—The government, in a new step to help flood-stricken British Columbia, today proclaimed for that province a section of the National Housing Act which provides for loans for home improvements.

It will come into effect tomorrow. The section has not been put into effect because home construction itself had need of all materials available.

The announcement was made in an extra edition of the Canada Gazette.

An official said the step would benefit only people whose homes planes flying in food and other supplies to Berlin.

Whether this would also mean Canadian air crew to fly them was problematical. External affairs officials met questions with "no comment."

SQUADRONS MENTIONED

R.C.A.F. officials declined to say how many transport planes they have. They have two transport squadrons, one flying the North Stars, which can carry nearly six tons each, the other using Dakotas whose capacity is considerably less. There also are a number of other transport planes outside the squadrons.

It was estimated unofficially that the total number is beyond 100, but not all of these would be available.

Old Arab Enemies Reach Agreement

CAIRO (Reuters)—King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan and King Ibn Saud of Saudi Arabia "reached complete agreement on national and patriotic objectives" at their first meeting in 25 years, according to a joint communique from the kings issued by the Arab League today.

The two kings were "doing their best to ensure for the Arabs their complete independence," the communique said.

London's Wharves Resume Activity

LONDON (Reuters)—London's great dock area, strikebound for 17 days, sprang to life again today as workers obeyed their leaders' call to bow to the government's proclamation of a state of emergency to save vital supplies.

Authorities at London, Liverpool and Birkenhead, the three major ports affected, reported "a complete resumption of work; it is a 100 per cent response."

It was thought likely the effects of the hold-up would be felt until the end of the year.

Fight Grasshoppers

BASSFIELD, Miss. (AP)—Desperate farmers are praying for rain and fighting with fire a hungry army of grasshoppers that is widening a path of destruction through corn and cotton here. At least 10 different localities have been laid waste by the crunching, crawling insect masses.

had been damaged in the B.C. floods. The banks and, in some cases, the houses will be the judges who decide whether an applicant should get a loan up to $2,000 for a single dwelling unit.

In a duplex or other multiple dwellings, $2,000 can be loaned on the first unit and $1,000 on each of the rest for repairs and improvements made necessary by flood waters.

The money is repayable in monthly instalments. Any loan of $1,000 or less is repayable in three years at 5 per cent. Those more than that sum are repayable in five years.

B.C. Flood Issue Delays
Prorogation At Ottawa

OTTAWA (CP) — The B.C. floods, receding on the west coast, roared into the Commons Tuesday night and washed out any hope of a late-hour prorogation.

As the chamber drove to clear the decks for the official closing ceremony, George Cruikshank, Lib., Fraser Valley, and a crew of opposition members dropped members into a two-hour whirlpool over the size of the federal contribution toward flood rehabilitation.

They criticized the $5,000,000 grant being provided and suggested final settlement be left open until the total flood damage has been assessed. At the same time, they thought a new $1,000,000 dredge should be bought to provide more efficient dredging of the Fraser River to ensure against future flooding.

Just to block the prorogation further, C.C.F. members launched a mid-sized cost-of-living debate on the finance department estimates in an unsuccessful attempt to learn what the government plans to do about the recommendations of the prices committee. The committee suggested action to bring down the cost of living.

Finance Minister Abbott reiterated that he could not say when the government would remove the 25 per cent excise taxes imposed last November as a part of the dollar-conservation program.

He said the government would give "immediate" consideration to a recommendation of the prices committee that the taxes be removed. The government also would consider the committee's other recommendations, which included a request for reimposition of some ceilings and revival of some subsidies.

CUT LUNCH PERIOD

In an attempt to complete business Tuesday night or early today, the chamber reduced its luncheon period to one hour. In the resulting nine hours of discussion it finished study of revenue department estimates and those of the public works department before bogging down on finance department appropriations.

The chamber passed 291 divorce bills providing for the separation of couples in Quebec, the only province without a divorce court.

Opening the flood debate, Mr. Cruikshank felt the government could do more than grant $5,000,000 for the relief of the 2,500 farmers in the Fraser Valley. It had found all the money it needed to fight the war and had made large grants towards European relief.

During the flood "enough brass hats to sink the whole Fraser Valley" had appeared at one B.C. airport.

NOT WISH OF PEOPLE

He did not believe it was the wish of the Canadian people that only $5,000,000 be provided for the flood victims. The people would endorse any larger amount the government wished to provide.

Fisheries Minister Mayhew, who handled most of the negotiations leading up to the settlement, said that while the amount represented all the Dominion felt it could spend this year, it did not mean the government would not contribute more next year.

However, Howard Green, P.C., Vancouver South, said provision should be made for a further appropriation. The total damage could not be estimated until the flood waters had receded.

E. D. Fulton, P.C., Kamloops, said rough estimates indicated damage in Fraser Valley alone would come to $30,000,000. This did not include the cost to the other flooded areas.

Thomas Reid, parliamentary assistant to Revenue Minister McCann, suggested Parliament should leave the decision to the provincial authorities.

The Senate met briefly Tuesday and adjourned till today.

By-law To Keep Crowds From Fires
At Port Alberni

PORT ALBERNI—A new city traffic by-law here will give police sufficient backing to enforce order at fires, according to aldermen who formulated the by-law following a meeting with Provincial Police, in which the latter were asked to explain an alleged lack of supervision of the recent Wauthier Motors garage fire.

Mayor L. K. Jordan criticized the necessity of passing by-laws "to get action from authorities," adding he did not see why police could not enforce order at a fire without a special by-law.

Sgt. Samuel Service of the Provincial Police, told council, there was no law under which the police could charge a person who refused to move away from a fire, other than the Criminal Code, under the section governing obstruction of a police officer. He said he thought it a serious thing, to make a person criminal, for such an offence and added, that it would be a hard thing to prove at any rate.

Modernization Plan For Canadian Ships

OTTAWA (CP)—The Canadian Maritime Commission has launched a "tonnage replacement plan" intended to modernize this country's merchant fleet, the organization's annual report disclosed when it was tabled in the Commons Tuesday.

The report said that Canada's fleet of 153 ships, totaling 983,000 tons, consists mainly of the war-built "Park" ships afterwards sold by the government to private shipping interests.

"Many Canadian shipowners must have faster and more specialized tonnage for their services if they are to meet foreign competition effectively," the report said.

The ships were sold with the restriction that they must not be resold to anyone who would transfer them from Canadian registry. Arrangements now are being made to allow them to be transferred to foreign registry when their owners use the proceeds to obtain replacements.

"A number of Canadian owners now are negotiating with the commission regarding participation in the plan," it said. "The shipowner is enabled to obtain the present high world market price for his war-built ship and to replace it with a ship better suited to his operations and capable of meeting foreign competition."

Employment Hits Record Height For Summer In Canada

OTTAWA (CP)—Employment is at record heights for this time of year, Labor Minister Mitchell says.

In his monthly statement on the manpower situation, made public Tuesday, he said the job market currently is marked by a shortage of labor. However, the supply of immigrant and student labor is such that the summer shortage probably will not be as bad as it was last year.

The statement said that at June 17 there were 63,000 jobs available and 119,000 persons registered at National Employment Service offices. At May 13 there were 43,000 vacancies and 184,000 unemployed workers.

"As the season progresses, the shortage of farm labor has become increasingly apparent, although the situation is expected to be eased somewhat by increasing numbers of immigrants entering Canada," says the report. These were the unemployment totals at June 17 in western cities, with the number of job vacancies in brackets:

Calgary, 1,705 (1,406); Edmonton, 1,830 (1,495); Regina, 859 (734); Saskatoon, 1,331 (517); Winnipeg, 6,736 (3,739); Fort William, 890 (266); New Westminster, B.C., 4,722 (234); Vancouver, 12,487 (2,314); Victoria, 2,151 (520).

Yacht Club Anchorage Rendezvous For Regatta Visitors

Small sailboats and power boats cluster about the Royal Victoria Yacht Club Cadboro Bay anchorage while a group of wives relax in foreground on the yacht club lawn, awaiting the arrival of their husbands from Bedwell Bay aboard the larger sailing craft taking part in the long-distance races, first for sailing craft in the Pacific International Yachting Association regatta.

Noted Lawyer, Author, Financier, W. Perkins Bull Dies

NIAGARA-ON-THE-LAKE, Ont. (CP)—William Perkins Bull, K.C., 77, lawyer and financier whose interests ranged from Arctic exploration to Cuban sugar plantations, died in a rest home here early today.

The big, white-bearded business man spent most of his life in an atmosphere of excitement, roamed the world and made himself an author, historian and connoisseur of the arts.

For the last several years he was head of B. H. Bull and Sons, Jersey cattle importers and breeders at Brampton, 35 miles northwest of Toronto.

A continent-wide sensation was created by the death at his Toronto home in July, 1938, of Mrs. Mabelle Horlick Sidley, Chicago heiress. She had lived at the Bull home for some years. A post-mortem examination indicated she died from natural causes. Then it was disclosed Mrs. Sidley had bequeathed Mr. Bull $500,000. William Sidley, a son of the woman, tried to break the will. An out-of-court settlement was reached by which, it was reported at the time, Mr. Bull received $250,000 and other legacies in return for renouncing his interest.

1 Barrage Balloon Gave Rise To False Alarms In Berlin

BERLIN (AP)—One tired old barrage balloon raised a false scare today that the Russians were putting up a new obstacle to the aerial food ferry route into Soviet-blockaded Berlin.

Excited United States air force officials, suspecting a threat to the air lifeline to Berlin, found a supposed mass of obstacles was just an old balloon that has flown a long time in the corridor between Berlin and the British zone.

The false report, presumably based on information from pilots, first came from Frankfurt.

Pilots already had been warned to fly above the 5,000-foot level of the supposed obstacles.

The report on the balloons, used during the war to prevent low-level attacks on cities, came after Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky had cautioned against any air traffic violations by the United States and Britain in their effort to feed Berlin with sky-borne supplies.

Melrose To Attend Meeting To Discuss Kootenay Flood

G. P. Melrose, deputy lands minister, will represent the British Columbia government at an international meeting to discuss flood damage of the Kootenay River.

Invited to the meeting, which will be held July 27 in Bonners Ferry, Idaho, have been the governors of the five northwest states, members of the United States-Canada International Joint Commission, and the Canadian and U.S. government.

Details of the meeting were announced in Washington, D.C., by the state department.

Results of a four-year survey of the International Columbia River Engineering Board, set up under the International Joint Commission, will be available to the meeting.

"It is hoped that an important program for development of water storage and hydro-electric development may be planned to prevent the destruction and great loss of property that has occurred as a result of devastating floods in this area this spring," said a state department announcement from Washington.

Meanwhile it was learned that the International Columbia River Engineer Board will hold a routine meeting in Victoria July 12 to 14. This meeting will hear progress reports on studies of the Columbia River dealing with flood control, fisheries, power development and other questions. Attending the meetings will be Mr. Melrose and Maj. R. C. Farrow, comptroller of water rights for the B.C. government.

Floods Decrease Tourists Visiting B.C. During May

Trade and Industry Minister L. H. Eyres today blamed B.C. Washington and Oregon floods for a marked decrease in the value of tourists cars entering British Columbia during May.

Statistics show that 14,324 cars entered the province on travelers' vehicle permits during May through border ports, compared with 16,101 during May, 1947. This represents a decrease of 1,777 cars.

Mr. Eyres said it was surprising that Vancouver Island suffered so little because of the floods in Washington and Oregon.

The minister said that automobile clubs and travel organizations in all the western states are being kept fully informed by daily reports from the B.C. government travel bureau on road conditions in the province.

The bureau has gone so far as to remodel its whole publicity campaign so as to present the true picture in media circulating in all parts of the western states, and to supplement it with spot announcements from several radio stations," he said.

progress reports on studies of the Columbia River dealing with flood control, fisheries, power development and other questions. Attending the meetings will be Mr. Melrose and Maj. R. C. Farrow, comptroller of water rights for the B.C. government.

2 False Pretences Charges Against Woman

Margaret E. Rife, Victoria, was remanded to Friday without plea in city police court today when she appeared before Magistrate H. C. Hall and was charged on two counts of obtaining money by false pretences.

E. S. Farr appeared for accused and asked for the remand to set a day for trial.

Mrs. Rife is charged with obtaining $5 in cash from McGill and Orme June 24 by means of a worthless cheque. The second charge is she obtained $9 from Albert Harvey and Oscar Guelpha by the same means June 12.

About $50 worth of articles were taken from the motorcycle owned by Harry R. Allaby, 322 Menzies Street, which was stolen Tuesday night, city police report. Bike was found abandoned in bushes at Oswego and Superior, stripped of a number of features.

Best, Nazi Aide, Gets Life Term

BOSTON (AP)—Robert H. Best, the American newspaperman and radio propagandist for the German Nazis for $200 a month, was sentenced today to life imprisonment for treason.

The sentence was imposed by Judge Francis J. W. Ford, who also ordered Best to pay a fine of $10,000.

Judge Ford imposed the sentence after hearing T. Vincent Quinn, assistant attorney general of the United States, appeal for imposition of the death penalty.

Best's counsel, Charles W. Bartlett, asked the court for leniency on the ground that Best was "a fanatic, a crusader—doing what he thought best for his country."

Balkan Rift Reported Lessened

BELGRADE (CP)—The Yugoslav-Cominform rift on "ideological differences" lessened today when the Yugoslav Communist Party announced it would do everything possible to strengthen co-operation with the Soviet Union and other "People's Democracies."

The party's program, to be presented by the central committee to its fifth congress July 21, made it clear that to Yugoslavia the Cominform controversy was a "family quarrel" rather than a permanent clash.

Though the program did not directly mention the criticism of Yugoslavia by the International Communist Information Bureau Monday, it was published in the official party organ Borba alongside the text of Premier Josip Tito's sharply worded answer Tuesday night to Cominform charges that Yugoslav Communists were "deviating from the Marxist-Leninist line." The answer denied the charges and referred to them as "lies and slander."

MYSTERY ABOUT TITO

The whereabouts of Tito remained unknown today. Without confirmation, he has been reported variously on an Adriatic Island, at his summer castle in Bled, Yugoslavia, or in Belgrade itself.

The program, which took up 17 columns, also declared Yugoslav Communists would work for a future union of Yugoslavia, Bulgaria and Albania "on the basis of national equality."

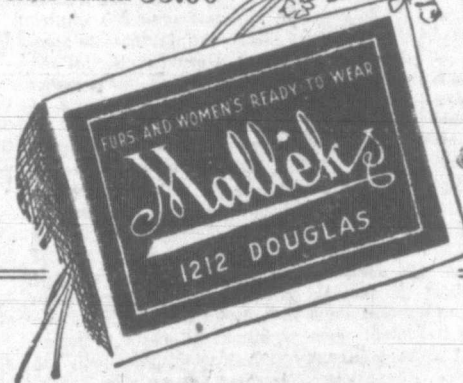

Tuesday night the Bulgarian Fatherland Front, dominated by Communists, said Cominform criticism of the Yugoslavs "in no way alters the friendly relations existing between the Bulgarian and Yugoslav republics."

CANADA'S BIRTHDAY

TOMORROW IS AN ANNIVERSARY TO which every Canadian refers with pride. We call it Dominion Day. Use of this simple term should impress upon our minds the basic fact that as a member of the British family we began to look after our own affairs—by virtue of an imperial statute—on July 1, 1867. In those days, of course, many heads shook to register doubt about the innovation reflected by the implication of the prescribed legislative formula—namely, the British North America Act, since brought up to date by the sheer impact of democratic evolutionary developments.

We do not propose to hide behind the veil of the commonplace by suggesting that the architects of Canada's national charter intended the original document to be a rigid pattern for this young and progressive country's march toward nationhood. They knew that many rough edges would need the sandpaper of realism to round them off. This method justified itself. In some parts of Canada, it is true, the colonial concept remained for a considerable period after Confederation. It was scarcely likely to be otherwise. But when Sir Robert Borden, then Prime Minister, appended Canada's signature to the Treaty of Versailles he demonstrated with a single flourish of the pen our adult status before the world.

If another example of our "growing pains" were essential to embellish the theme we have in mind, it could be found in the simple ceremony at which the late Rt. Hon. Ernest LaPointe, then Minister of Justice in the first Cabinet of Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, signed the Halifax Treaty with the United States back in 1923. Well do we recall how one eminent authority and writer on constitutional affairs—affecting particularly the relations between the component parts of the British Empire—rolled his eyes to high heaven as he contemplated this, to him, brash manifestation of Canada's arrival as mistress-in her own house.

Most of the foregoing naturally is so much water over the dam. But if there had been any doubt about the solicitude of Canada for the preservation of the British Commonwealth and Empire in the troubled times which followed the great economic debacle of 1929, the historian can draw his own conclusions when he recalls the national response in August, 1914, and that of September, 1939. Canada accepted the challenge of Hohenzollern and Hitler. The moral here obviously is that the looser the tie linking the member states of the Commonwealth, whose equality was legalized by the formal adoption of the Statute of Westminster in 1931, the stronger is that invisible bond which has stood the test.

DANGER TO DICTATORS

WHATEVER MAY BE THE EVENTUAL outcome of the conflict between Moscow and Belgrade, one point of complaint by the Tito faction will be a source of some surprise. According to the news dispatch, "The central committee of the Yugoslav Communist Party charged that members of the Cominform accepted Russia's criticism of the Yugoslav Party before they had heard the Yugoslav side." Are there two sides to a question in a totalitarian state? If that concept is accepted, then the myth of infallibility with which the exalted surround themselves is exploded.

This seems a dangerous precedent for a system of government that requires complete conformity with doctrine from above. If faith is shaken in this particular, questions may arise over other issues. Justice and logic raise their heads to menace single-mindedness and new challenges may emerge. Can a totalitarian state stand that? The question is asked without irony. It is put merely to emphasize the contrast between the new procedure apparently adopted by the Yugoslavs and that which has been accepted by fellow-travelers elsewhere who have performed all manner of contortions in order to jump through the hoop when the Kremlin cracked the whip.

WRONG APPROACH

THE EXCELLENT MAGAZINE HEALTH. The official publication of the Health League of Canada, takes occasion in a current editorial to commend the action of that organization in calling on the Postmaster-General of the Dominion to ban the mails to the recent book by Dr. A. C. Kinsey, popularly known as the "Kinsey Report." The volume, it will be recalled, purports to be a study of "sexual behavior in the human male," and it has aroused considerable discussion as a result of its disclosures, derived from personal interviews with large numbers of male residents of the United States.

We hold no brief for the book in question beyond believing that it is entitled to take its place with the host of other scientific approaches to a subject that is traditionally wrapped in social taboos and religious injunctions. But we do feel that attempts to discourage, by legislation or official order, its circulation among those who may read it for the stimulation of sex "myseries" it may disclose, are the wrong method of approach.

No one ever dissipated the juvenile taste for stolen apples by building a higher fence around the orchard. The best way to restrain the undesirable proclivity is to inculcate a better-developed sense of property ownership and personal rights. In other words, the solution of such problems lies in education of the young to meet and handle competently the temptations and situations with which they are going to be faced all their lives—not in presenting to them a world of contrived pretence that they will later discover to have been false. This is a job for parents and teachers. It is not one that can be foisted on federal legislators or government departments.

IN WAR AND PEACE

BY THANKING MEMBERS OF THE active, reserve and auxiliary forces for their part in combating flood conditions in British Columbia, Defence Minister Brooke Claxton emphasized the work of a peacetime nature that is continually being carried out by Canada's fighting forces. Many a community has cause to be grateful for the help received from army, navy or air force personnel in time of emergency. Navy sea rescues, air force search expeditions and mercy flights, and the trained, organized services of army units, have made headlines on many an occasion. There are other peacetime employments, too, which utilize the abilities of those who in time of war would be this country's first defence. Aerial surveys and mapping work carried out by the R.C.A.F., hydrographic surveys and charting by the R.C.N., testing of equipment and medical techniques, and other technical jobs are part of the program of the armed forces.

It is not suggested that the energies of the defence forces are, or should be, entirely devoted to such activities. Their fundamental purpose is the defence of Canada and the perfecting of preparations to carry that out most effectively. But it is fortunate that much of the work we have mentioned above can be utilized as training for actions of a more military character. The country thus benefits doubly from its armed forces, and should thank them accordingly.

WAS RIGHT BEFORE

ALTHOUGH HE IS NO LONGER PRIME Minister, but still is able vividly to recall the injunctions he issued fully three years before the outbreak of the Second World War, Mr. Churchill again has warned the people of Great Britain that the conduct of the Soviet Union in Berlin and the dangerous potentiality of that conduct must not be countered with any form of appeasement.

It would be much too risky, perhaps, for us at this distance to dogmatize in respect of the formula which the men in charge at the Kremlin seem to have ordered for their military representatives in the capital of the former Third Reich. But it is obvious to all those who have watched the moving panorama of world events in recent days that Stalin and Company are intent upon trying at all costs to fasten their Communist ideology, not only on the whole of Europe, but, as soon as circumstances appear to warrant, on the rest of the world as well. No man or woman who values his or her liberty will countenance further progress of this scheme. Few have forgotten the program of the late and unlamented Adolf Hitler. Few will detect much difference between his concept of a so-called New Order and the pattern which the Moscow regime has successfully followed in those states at present behind the "Iron Curtain."

Unless all the lessons taught to the world at large by the recent conflict are to be of no avail, therefore, surely the warning which Mr. Churchill has uttered will not go unheeded.

ALL SHOW, NO MERIT

ACCORDING TO THE DICTATES OF Parisian fashion-makers, the relatively soberly-attired male is shortly to burst forth in a vest of brilliant plumage. We doubt that this is as new an idea as the courtiers of the French capital would have us believe. Several months ago The Times of London devoted an elegant editorial to this development among the sartorially advanced. But, whether new or old, we feel some protest is justified.

Why should the waistcoat be so distinguished? At best it is only a vehicle to carry pockets for pencils, spectacles, bits of paper on which are scrawled illegible notes, the odd soiled match and, for the vain, a fingernail and comb. It has a false back and the buttons in front do not permit the adjustments required for ease after meals. As a garment, the "waist" is a fraud. It tells not, neither does it spin, so why should it be endowed with a glory that Solomon could not rival.

If Paris will give its endorsement to the popular pull-over sweater, which is an honest, serviceable and comfortable piece of wearing apparel that comes in all shades of the rainbow, we will applaud the trend. Or even if the move to brighten the drab tradition of male vestments brings greater color to the main parts of the suit we will offer no objection. But too long has it been too true that "the coat and pants do all the work and the vest gets all the glory." It is time to call a halt in the social advancement of this garment. Down with the Paris trend!

Finding The Lost

From the Canadian Red Cross "Despatch"

FIRST CONTACT in many years with relatives dispersed by war and families separated by continents has brought new hope to nearly 30,000 persons of every nationality by the efforts of the Enquiry and Tracing Bureau of the Canadian Red Cross.

The Enquiry Bureau and its work in reuniting long-lost relatives has been in operation since 1939. To it come letters from all over the world asking help: a war victim, now homeless, hopes for news of relatives in Canada; a son has gone to sea and left no word; war fugitives in Canada seek knowledge of family members in Europe, believed dead.

AT NATIONAL headquarters of the society as many as 105 letters in a single day have gone through the hands of Miss Lavina Johnson, in charge of this work. In an average day she can count on 30 to 35 pleas for help. Since the war the bureau has handled enquiries from Germany, Poland, Norway, Denmark, Holland, Belgium, Hungary, France, Italy, Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia, Bulgaria, Romania, Japan, China, Dutch East Indies, Great Britain, Australia, South Africa, the U.S.S.R., and, of course, Canada and the U.S.

"These letters are a strange geography lesson," Miss Johnson remarked in commenting on her work. "They are history lessons, too, bitter lessons in modern history. And there is drama in them. They all tell stories. Some of them have humor, like the Mrs. Smith, or Schmidt, who seeks a Mr. Schmidt, or Smith, believed to own property 'on the shore of one of Canada's great lakes'."

"SOME ARE pathetic—an old man in Michigan, waiting to die, who has not heard from his son in Quebec for 40 years. Most of our letters tell of tragedy—loneliness, misery, hopelessness. But they all tell stories."

Where persons in Canada seek knowledge of relatives overseas, the bureau works through the Red Cross of that country. Often a number of Red Cross societies will co-operate in tracing a single individual, so that a chain of enquiry will stretch halfway around the world, branching off into forks and networks of searching at each link, before a missing person is located.

Recently the bureau was able to relieve the anxiety of a mother in Nova Scotia whose son had shipped out of Vancouver for Shanghai, had become ill en route, was hospitalized in Bombay, India, and eventually turned up safe and well in Durban, Natal, South Africa.

WHERE PERSONS overseas seek word of relatives in this country, the bureau works with the assistance of all departments of the Dominion and provincial governments, including immigration authorities, R.C.M.P., and every conceivable source of record where a name might turn a clue. Provincial divisions and branches of the society rally to the search, and as a last resort press and radio co-operate in advertising names of those sought.

"Sometimes," Miss Johnson said, "mere good luck works in our favor."

"Not long ago we had a request from a woman in Germany, anxious to contact her only brother. He had fled his Nazi-dominated homeland prior to the war, intending to live, she believed, in Montreal. For political reasons he had made no effort to contact his sister during the war and had since received rumors of her death."

"ALL OUR efforts to trace him through the customary channels failed. Finally, in Montreal, the society inserted an advertisement in local newspapers: 'The German name was one among many. By sheer coincidence, the man in question happened to be driving through Montreal on that day. By chance he bought a newspaper and by chance his eye caught his own name. He had been living not in Quebec, but in Ontario and under an assumed name.'"

"When last heard from, he was leaving for Halifax to board a ship for Germany and joyful reunion with his sister."

Numerous enquiries have been received from Displaced Persons living in European camps. To many of them the tracing service has meant an opportunity to come to Canada and start life anew in a happy family circle. To others it has meant gifts of food and clothing parcels from relatives in Canada.

OTHER SERVICES of the enquiry bureau include those on behalf of ex-servicemen's kin, still hopeful of finding traces of those reported missing in war, and fulfilling requests of parents of deceased servicemen asking that flowers be placed on graves in foreign lands.

For the American Red Cross the bureau keeps in touch with dependants of American servicemen and veterans, living in this country, offering assistance on behalf of the sister society whenever it is needed. In conjunction with the American Red Cross the bureau will arrange to have trains met and to see to the needs of the sick or other persons traveling to and from the United States requiring aid. On behalf of relatives abroad, its facilities are utilized to trace administrators of estates or persons who have died in Canada during war years.

"IT IS DIFFICULT," Miss Johnson explained "to catalogue the vast variety of conditions and circumstances involving the duties of the enquiry bureau. In the past year, this unique 'lost-and-found' has sent 10,000 letters in the names of missing persons, and dispatched almost 9,000 tracers."

Germany Today—A British View

Echoes From Philadelphia

By PETER EDSON from Washington

PHILADELPHIA — Convention postscripts — There ought to be some easier way to name presidential candidates.

Best speech, Herbert Hoover's. Worst speech, most of the others. They were so bad that even the radio audiences were pouring in complaints. Biggest flop, the MacArthur boom. Biggest bust, the Taft balloon that floated to the ceiling, hit a hot light and exploded, letting a "Taft for President" pennant fall symbolically to the floor. Most enthusiastic but worst singer, Congressman George Bender of Ohio, leading the Taft demonstration in the convention's most overworked tune, "Four Leaf Clover," which should now become a symbol for bad luck.

Best press conference, Gov. Earl Warren of California. He made a hit as the squarest shooter at the convention and a man whose word could be depended on. He was the only candidate who refused to predict his own election. Difference between Dewey and Warren: Dewey said Congress had made a remarkable record in a number of fields. Warren said frankly that Congress had failed to tackle many of the fundamental problems facing the country today.

Biggest boo from the crowd, to Senator Ed Martin of Pennsylvania, when he came to the platform to nominate Dewey and said, "This is the most historic moment of my life."

Biggest demonstration, Harold Stassen's three a.m. show. All the other "spontaneous demonstrations," staged mostly by ringers and not by delegates, were put on by grim-faced old-timers and extras for the mob scene. The Stassen following had youth and color and perhaps hope that the GOP would become really progressive.

Biggest let-down, also Harold Stassen. Day before balloting began, Stassen declared that the "Grundy-Dewey deal" had injured the Republican party. Next day Stassen proposed making Dewey's nomination unanimous. When Stassen did this, his followers in the crowd yelled, "No," gave him a few boos and cried, "We want Stassen." But once again a convention chose a candidate who had the delegates, but not the support of the crowd. It happened in 1920 when the Republicans passed up Hoover for Harding, and when the Democrats passed up Al Smith for John W. Davis in 1924.

Last man to give up on trying to make General Eisenhower the GOP nominee was C. D. Hicks, Missouri manufacturer. In spite of all the pre-convention hullabaloo about Ike, he didn't get one vote.

Last line in Speaker Joe Martin's speech after his election as permanent chairman was, "We have come of age. In our maturity, with the help of God, let us greet the future." Martin turned around and there, facing him, was Herbert Hoover.

Man who did most to spoil Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg's candidacy was Senator Vandenberg himself. When he issued a perfectly meaningless 13-line statement after arrival in Philadelphia, it was shown to one of his most ardent backers. This politician read the statement grimly, paced the floor of his hotel room a couple of times and then remarked, "Did you ever hear about the country girl?" When asked, "Which one?" he replied, "The one who was so damn coy she never did get kissed."

Dirtiest crack heard at the convention: "Well, we're going to get rid of the haberdasher, all right, but we're turning the store over to a model out of the window."

Anticipating A Buyers' Market

By S. BURTON HEATH from New York

THE Long Island Railroad is falling all over itself to make friends with the scores of thousands who ride it daily between home and work. A new operator has been sent by the parent Pennsylvania Railroad. Not only is he wooing the customers with words. He has gone to the extreme length of trying to improve a service that long has been a national jest.

Having a small but troublesome hardware purchase to make, the other day we ventured, one after another, into four stores that have been giving us the horse laugh for years when we asked for anything.

This time everything was different. All were pleasant. Instead of walking off in distaste, they paused to tell what they did have, and since that wasn't acceptable they even suggested that somebody else might have what we wanted.

Department stores and even haberdasheries are advertising bargains, and clearance sales. Television dealers in some places have slashed the heart out of list prices. Scotch is on open shelves at prices no higher than increased taxes would justify. Airlines are offering reduced rate vacation trips. Railroads are flooding printers with brilliantly-colored travel literature designed to get us onto trains.

STRAWS IN THE WIND

All these, and more like them, are straws in the wind. During six war and post-war years those who sell goods and services had been increasingly irritated with us who had the impertinence to want to buy. Now—and doesn't it seem nice?—they're accepting our patronage, even pretending to welcome it.

It would be unwise to exaggerate the importance of such straws. Most items still are in short supply, led by homes and automobiles, not to mention gasoline and heating oil.

Prices, after resting a bit, have got a sixth or seventh wind and started climbing again. Preliminary figures from the National Industrial Conference Board show that consumer prices in May passed their previous all-time high, reached in January. The cost of food is up twice as much as the overall consumer price index.

Obviously the improved attitude on the part of sellers does not reflect a glut of goods on their shelves.

Clerks take their tone from bosses. If one were guessing why bosses and their clerks are getting friendlier to us customers, maybe it is because they have begun looking into a future that is getting closer.

It's still mostly a sellers' market. But buyers aren't quite so desperate for goods.

The smart merchant—of goods or services—never did deliberately insult his customers, though many did get careless. Some, less smart, let themselves get very independent and nasty.

Those whose eyes are open now are trying to rebuild good will against the day, sure to come if slow, when the customer again will be king. If you want to know which business men will be haunting employment offices eventually, seeking jobs, keep a list of those who still act as though they wish you wouldn't bother them by asking for something to buy.

Progress On Yangtze Plan

China News Bulletin

UNDER extreme financial difficulties, initial survey and drill work on the Yangtze Valley Authority Project has been completed. Although the Chinese Government announced last December the suspension of the project, work has since been carried on bit by bit whenever material and personnel were available.

After Dr. John L. Savage, American engineer, completed his preliminary survey of the Yangtze or San-Hsia Gorges, a drilling engineering corps was organized last October to train personnel for the excavation work. The original drilling was under supervision of American hydro engineering technicians.

The first part, about 1,500 feet of the northern bank of the river, was dredged and cut back at a 45 degree inclination, last March. About 1,000 feet more on the south bank has just been completed. The men are divided into three groups who work on eight-hour shifts, day and night. Their work is both tedious and laborious; their equipment sadly inadequate. The sum total of their working tools consists of: A canvas shelter, many aluminum tubes of about 20 feet long and two inches in diameter for excavation purposes, a drilling machine and numerous wooden boxes to hold the soil and crushed rocks.

The Yangtze, China's longest river, is 3,100 miles in length. About half of the country's 450,000,000 people are dependent upon it and its tributaries for their livelihood. More than half of the rice, cotton, tea and tung oil produced in China are grown along its banks or in the valleys formed by its branches. The entire project, when completed, would be an invaluable aid to the rural areas in both central and west China, even though the estimated cost runs into the neighborhood of $3,000,000,000 U.S. currency.

Global Survey

By DeWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press News Analyst

THE alleged defection of Yugoslavia's Marshal Tito and his captains from the red laws of the Moscow Kremlin still is surrounded with mystery, but this much is clear:

There is a break at a strategic point in the Bolshevik western front!

This is the first serious setback of the kind which Russia has encountered among its slave states. The Times of London, in an editorial headed "Tito called to heel," says: "Nothing so apparently unlikely has happened for a long time, and nothing so destructive of communist unity since the expulsion of Trotsky by the Bolsheviks."

We, of course, shouldn't jump to the conclusion that communism is on the verge of collapse. However, we are entitled to join in a hopeful smile along with the burners of midnight oil in the harassed chancelleries of the western democracies.

LINE VULNERABLE

We have had a demonstration that the Bolshevik Maginot Line is vulnerable. That's the big news of the development. And your columnist was interested to see the Yugoslav explosion come at a moment when he was telling you he believed communism would blow up in due course. We may some day see "one world," but it never will be the communist conception of a global federation of nations which have been shorn of all sovereignty and are ruled with an iron hand from Moscow.

WON'T HELP REDS

This Tito debacle certainly isn't calculated to strengthen the Bolsheviks' hand in their effort to achieve a political coup in Germany by a food blockade which threatens some 2,000,000 Germans in the American-British-French zones of Berlin with hunger, if not starvation. Gen. Sir Brian Robertson, British military governor, labelled this piece of despotism cruelty yesterday with the declaration that if the Russians persist in their blockade it will "constitute an act of ruthless inhumanity unparalleled in the history of the world."

A good many people are asking whether this atrocity is likely to result in war. I don't think so. As Sir Brian says, the situation in Berlin is grave—"Grave not only for the people of Berlin, it is grave for the people of the world."

However, there are no indications that the Muscovites intend to push the matter to the point of gunfire.

ROAD MENACE

Edmonton Journal
Dimming headlights is such an easy thing to do, and it is so essential to highway safety at night, that anyone who does not do it should be ruled off the road for a week or two, at least.

AMERICAN SCIENTISTS PROTEST

Toronto Star
Scientists in the United States have begun, individually and through their associations, to protest against the "loyalty" witch-hunt. And the government is having increasing difficulties in obtaining able and experienced scientific workers.

DRAFT REVIVED

Montreal Star
What is significant about the new U.S. draft measure is not the number of men it will put in uniform directly, but the widespread acceptance of its necessity among people who previously prided themselves on keeping military activity in time of peace to a minimum. In this, the public was several steps ahead of its legislators. The responsibility attaching to power and leadership has sunk in.

TOO FEW FAILURES?

Toronto Saturday Night
The late Lecomte du Noyau said that nature's greatest invention was death. This is her way of getting rid of the old folks in order to make way for the young folks. Without death there could be no birth—at least, it would soon lead to a bit of overcrowding. There would be no development, no evolution, no progress.

The same is true in business. When a firm fails it is very sad for the people who invested their lives and their fortunes in building it up. But it makes way for others, more farsighted, more efficient, or perhaps just more lucky.

Seattle Kiwanian Believes Good Will Is Peace Formula

Emphasizing the value of the U.S.-Canadian Goodwill Week, Forest C. Watson of the Seattle Kiwanis' Downtown Club told Victoria Kiwanians at the club's weekly luncheon at the Empress Hotel Tuesday that the international goodwill so evident between the two countries was what was needed on a world-wide basis to achieve peace.

Speaking in an entertaining and informal style, Mr. Watson related his own experiences during his visits to Canada and during part of his earlier life spent in Britain.

The son of a former professional golfer and an ardent linksman himself, the speaker used his relationships with British and Canadian golfers to illustrate many of his points.

WONDERFUL HOSPITALITY

Although he said he liked the definition of hospitality as "the talent to make people feel at home even although you wish they were," the Washington business man admitted that such was not the case in Canada. "Your hospitality is wonderful," he said. "It's always genuine."

Mr. Watson's speech, ably injected with humor, was not confined to any specific aspect of goodwill, but was more of a chatty nature as he brought out what he considered to be the "truer amateurism" in British sport and the British respect for law and order.

"Your decrease in juvenile delinquency in Canada since 1941 indicates this respect," he stated.

CURRENCY MORE STABLE

Dealing briefly with financial matters, Mr. Watson said that in his opinion Canadian currency was actually more stable than that of the United States. He gave as reasons the fact that Canada managed her war debt better and had less inflation than in his country.

"However," he concluded, "a day of reckoning in the United States is not far off when this whole mess will come to a head."

Temporary Allowances For C.P.R. Pensioners

MONTREAL (CP)—To help in meeting the increased cost of living, the Canadian Pacific Railway has decided to supplement temporarily the allowances payable to pensioners receiving less than $45 per month. It was announced here Tuesday.

Pensioners who now receive, or who will receive under the pension rules, from $30 to $40 monthly will see this amount increased by $5, and those receiving from $40 to $45 will have their monthly total brought up to the latter figure. The supplemental allowance will cease when the pensioner becomes eligible for a governmental old age pension.

The supplementary allowances, which have been brought into effect voluntarily by the company, affect to begin with some 2,600 former Canadian Pacific employees.

'People Are Funny' To Give Glacier

VANCOUVER (CP)—For coals, diamond rings and automobiles weren't enough, yet! Now it's an Alaska glacier.

John Guedel, 34-year-old owner and producer of the "People Are Funny" radio program and other shows, reveals his purchase of an Alaska glacier as a radio prize.

He said it would be used as a "gag."

The purchase was made during an Alaska vacation aboard the Canadian National Steamships' new vessel, the Ss. Prince George.

New York's Boast, Nickel Subway Fare Passes Into Memory

NEW YORK (CP)—Inflation will take its toll at midnight tonight on one of New York's proudest boasts.

For years the cry hailing the subway was: "The longest ride in the world for a nickel"—all of 26 miles. Tomorrow the fare for the usually bruising and creaking trip will be boosted from 5 to 10 cents.

The ailing city-owned transit systems will be richer by $81,000,000 a year.

But don't expect to find gold-covered straps to hang from on your next visit. And an oxygen mask will still come in handy: They won't be installing air conditioning.

Most of the added revenue will offset deficits and the remainder will pay a long-awaited 24-cent-an-hour increase for the 34,000 transit workers.

GOOD MANNERS DISCUSSED
Some quarters believe the pay increase will have a beneficial effect on the attitude of conductors towards the tortured customers. They expect a new tone of solicitude when the platform conductor places his knee in the small of your back to help you into a packed car.

Apparently to ensure that the feeling is mutual, the Board of Transportation is carrying on a spirited campaign for an enlightened subway etiquette. Right now the law of the jungle prevails.

The courtesy posters stare accusingly at almost every one of the 6,500,000 heroes and heroines who venture daily into the subterranean battle.

The good-manners propaganda indicates:

1. It's not nice to put your feet up on the seat.
2. You will win more smiles if you refrain, in your haste to board a car, from knocking down those trying desperately to get out.

Senior Officers To Visit Churchill

OTTAWA (CP)—Seven senior British and United States army officers will arrive here July 5 from Washington to visit Churchill, Man., and study Canadian army methods, the army announced Tuesday.

Death Never Takes A Holiday

So Make Sure You Obey These Important "Ten Commandments" For Driving Over The July 1 And Other Holidays

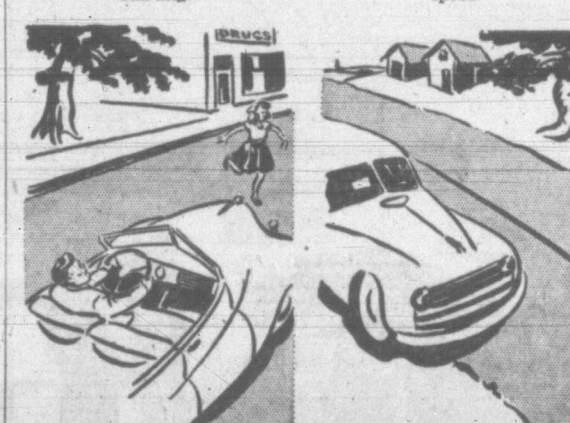

- (1) Start in time so you don't have to race to your destination. Obey speed limits. Slow down at night and during bad weather.
- (2) Respect the rights of other motorists. Be ready to yield the right-of-way to the other fellow at all intersections.

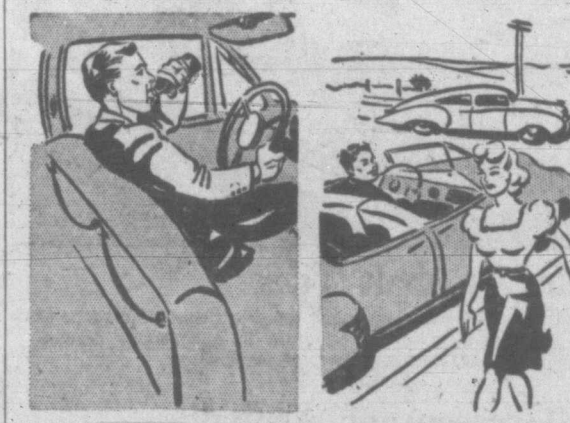

- (3) Come to a complete stop at stop signs and heed all other signs, pavement markings and other warnings.
- (4) Don't be a weaver. Stay in line, changing lanes only when necessary to pass or turn. Don't pass unless way is clear.

- (5) Make all turns from the proper lane and use arm signals for right and left turns and for stopping and starting.
- (6) Follow other vehicles at a safe distance. Allow at least one car length for every 10 miles per hour of speed.

Studying Possible Health Hazard

ALBANY—An apparent health hazard in the surface water of Albany has been brought to the attention of the city council here, by a letter from the Public Health officer at Vancouver, in which council was urged to take every step to trace source of the offensive material found in the water. Samples of yellow scum found on the surface water on May 17 were sent to Vancouver to be analyzed and F. Earlett, chemist, wrote that the contents of the sample "would apparently confirm the opinion that the material is sewage, septic effluent or a combination of both."

Streetcars Thing Of Past After Midnight Saturday

Final phase in the transportation change-over will be completed at midnight Saturday when the last two street-railway lines, Beacon Hill and Outer Wharf, will be replaced by buses, B.C. Electric officials announced today.

H. R. Halls, transportation manager of the company, in describing the new routes, drew the attention of the public to the fact that the Beacon Hill line will be combined with the present Haultain route, while the Outer Wharf line will complete a loop in the city.

The Beacon Hill bus will commence from a loop of Niagara, Douglas, Battery and Government Streets, proceeding via Niagara, Menzies, Belleville and Government to Yates Street, where it will become the Haultain line proceeding directly up Yates Street over the present Haultain routes.

Outbound Haultain passengers will board the bus on the southeast corner of Yates and Douglas.

The Outer Wharf line will proceed from a terminal loop of Dallas Road, Pilot, Niagara and Dock Streets, via Dallas Road, Erie, St. Lawrence, Superior, Government and Cormorant Streets to Douglas Street, returning via Douglas, Pandora Avenue and Government Street. The city terminus of this line will be on Pandora Avenue on the City Hall corner.

Mr. Halls stated the buses would operate on approximately the same service schedules as are at present in effect in the two areas, no material changes being contemplated at this time.

Zoo Bear Chews Off Arm Of 12-Year-Old Boy

PEORIA, Ill. (AP) — A 250-pound black Himalayan bear, "Tuffy" Tuesday chewed off the arm of a 12-year-old boy who climbed a fence to feed the animal.

Witnesses said John Dickerson climbed a three-foot fence outside the cage of "Tuffy" and "Babe," Glen Oak Park's two black bears. He was feeding grapes to "Tuffy" through the bars when the animal seized his arm.

A nearby concessionaire, A. B. Eads, grabbed a cane from an onlooker, jumped the fence and stuck the cane in the bear's mouth, forcing it to release the boy.

The lad's left arm was chewed off above the elbow.

Much Drafting If Meat Ceilings Restored

OTTAWA (CP)—Finance Minister Abbott said Tuesday night in the Commons reimposition of price ceilings on meat would involve a great deal of technical work.

He told Stanley Knowles, C.C.F., Winnipeg North Centre, that the Prices Board would have to draw up a whole new schedule of meat prices. A schedule drawn up last January was now outdated.

Mr. Knowles said the government should state before the session ended that it planned to instruct the Prices Board to work on the drafting of new ceilings.

THE SOCIAL SECURITY AND MUNICIPAL AID TAX becomes operative in British Columbia

✓ Every Seller at Retail is an Agent of the Crown. As such he is required to collect from the user or consumer of the taxable goods he sells three cents on every dollar.

✓ You, the citizen and taxpayer are entitled to know what amount you have to pay, and for what purposes this tax is collected.

✓ You are not required to pay tax on certain essentials of living, since there is no desire on the part of Government to add to the householders' burden any more than is absolutely necessary. For instance, you pay no tax on rent, on foodstuffs, on fuel for cooking or heating your home, on medical and dental prescriptions, on ice to conserve perishables, on insurance, on insecticides and antiseptics, on gasoline, on meals costing less than 51 cents.

✓ If you are a commercial fisherman, you pay no tax on equipment used to produce a food catch, or on your boat or engine.

✓ If you are a farmer you pay no tax on farm implements or machinery, livestock, poultry, feed, or fencing, seeds or fertilizer.

✓ If you are one of the lower income groups, you can expect immediate or deferred return of your contribution in the form of social services which the tax is designed to protect. Thus the tax cannot be called regressive.

✓ Luxury spenders will carry a large proportion of the cost of the tax.

✓ Industry will pay a major share.

✓ Of the $12,000,000 annual revenue estimated to accrue from the tax, $8,000,000 will be paid directly to the Social Security Fund. It will provide a substantial measure of insurance for social commitments; although actually it will meet only a fraction of requirements.

✓ The following table shows the immense growth of social security costs:

1926	1930	1940	1948 (Estimated)
$2,643,000	$4,110,000	$5,604,000	$21,000,000

✓ Rapid advances of population and general broadening of the social service programme in British Columbia are responsible for these increased expenditures. The following table indicates one cause, in the swelling totals of beneficiaries:

	1939	1948
Old Age Pensioners	12,810	22,401
Social Allowance	10,755	12,591

✓ After $8,000,000 is paid to social security, the remaining anticipated $4,000,000 to be derived from the tax, will be divided proportionately among the municipalities to be utilized in such a way that the burden on real property will be materially reduced.

Honeymoon At Crescent Lake For Mr. And Mrs. Pepper

Lake Crescent in Washington is the honeymoon destination of John Wilfred Pepper and his bride, the former Jean Frances Miller, who married yesterday evening in Fairfield United Church.

Rev. William Allen read the nuptial service for the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Addison G. Miller, Quadra Street, and the elder son of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Pepper, 3571 Calumet Avenue.

Pink roses and blue canterbury bells, with yellow carnations marking the guest pews, decorated the church as the bride came down the aisle on the arm of her father.

She chose a wedding gown of white slipper satin in crinoline style, with rows of white lace showing from beneath the full skirt. A rolled-edge of lace outlined the net yoke, above a design of seed pearl embroidery.

Her "something borrowed" was a double strand of pearls belonging to her mother. White carnations in her hair held a full-length veil of French net, and she carried a shower bouquet of yellow roses.

Dressed in taffeta were her three senior attendants. Miss Norma Williamson as maid of honor wore green, with yellow carnations in her hair to match those in her shower bouquet. Miss Vera Wood and Miss Margaret Pepper were in mauve and pink with pink and mauve sweet peas in their bouquets and in their hair.

As flower girl, Miss Audrey Thornton wore yellow eyelet nylon and carried a gold basket filled with sweet peas. Jack Miller was best man for the groom, and ushers were Ray Chalk and Harold Robinson.

A reception at Cherry Bank Hotel followed the ceremony. Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Pepper assisted the newlyweds in receiving their guests, and Rev. Allen proposed the toast to the bride.

For her traveling costume the bride wore a three-piece suit of cherry red gabardine with powder blue hat and grey accessories.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Pepper will make their home in Victoria.

It is said to take four tons of fresh grapes to make one ton of dried raisins.

Mainland Home
For Bridal Pair

Stanley George Ricketts and his bride, the former Miss Hazel Jean Peters, whose wedding took place early Saturday evening at St. John's Church, have chosen their new home in Vancouver.

Mrs. Ricketts is the daughter of Thomas George Peters and the late Mrs. Peters, Winnipeg, Man., and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Ricketts, 808 Lampson Street, Esquimalt.

Cpl. George William Peters gave his sister in marriage. Her gown of white satin featured a nylon neckline with lace inserts. Her headpiece set with pearls and orange blossoms, held a full-length veil. Red roses and heather fashioned her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. F. H. Foster attended her sister as matron of honor. She wore a gown of mauve brocade taffeta with full net skirt. Bridesmaids in yellow frocks, similarly styled, were Misses Lillian Phillips and Angie MacLeod. Flower girl, little Patricia Peters, niece of the bride, wore green taffeta. All carried Colonial bouquets.

Edward Ricketts was best man for his brother. Ushers were Richard Tisdale and Jimmy McLellan. The rites were conducted by Rev. George Biddle. During the signing of the register, Miss Angie MacLeod sang "Because."

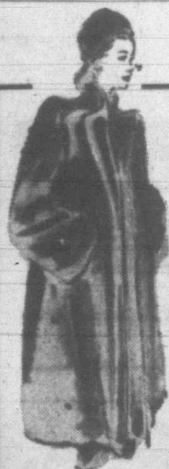

At a reception at the home of the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Foster, Fairfield Road, a long-distance call was received from the bride's father, Mr. Peters, and sister, Mrs. C. Watling, in Winnipeg.

Mrs. Ricketts and Mrs. Foster assisted in receiving guests, and toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. Foster. A three-tier wedding cake centred the lace-covered table, set with tall pink tapers. Baskets of bright flowers flanked the fireplace, and pink and white streamers decorated the room.

For her traveling costume, Mrs. Ricketts chose a white three-quarter length coat with white accessories to accent her pale blue gabardine suit. Red roses formed her corsage bouquet.

Brocaded Taffeta
For Wedding Gown

A gown of brocaded silk taffeta, with full bouffant skirt was worn by Marian Lucille Berry at a Saturday evening wedding ceremony in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church at which she became the bride of Christian Hagel.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Berry, Boleskine Road. She wore long gloves to match her dress and a chapel veil which was caught to a tiara of white bouquet was of carnations, roses and bouvardia, and she wore a strand of pearls.

She was attended by Mrs. Carol Murphy, who as matron of honor wore an off-the-shoulder gown of turquoise blue taffeta and pink bonnet, and by Miss Joyce Elliot, dressed in pink taffeta with a blue bonnet.

Both carried flowers to match their dresses and wore pendant and earring sets given them by the bride.

During the ceremony, which was solemnized by Rev. J. L. W. McLean, the bride's sister, Mrs. G. Barter, sang "Because."

A toast to the bride at a reception held at Loughheed's Banquet Club was proposed by her grandfather, David Berry Sr.

As she left for her honeymoon, during which the young couple will travel through the western United States and Canada, the new Mrs. Hagel wore a beige gabardine dressmaker suit and a matching off-the-face hat. Her accessories were red, and a corsage bouquet of red roses completed her ensemble.

Bakery Consultant
A Visitor In City

"Service to Homemakers" was the subject of a talk given by Margaret Ball, consultant from the Bakery Foods Foundation of Canada, at a luncheon sponsored by members of the baking industry of Victoria.

Miss Ball, who is making a coast-to-coast tour studying meal planning and food purchasing, explained that much research and educational work is now being done. "At this time," said Miss Ball, "we must do all we can to show women how versatile bread is, and what a large contribution in actual energy food it gives for a small percentage of the food dollar."

"Bread should be served in variety to add interest to meals. It has many cooking uses and stretches other foods in many nourishing and economical ways. Bread and all bakery foods should be considered by the homemaker from the standpoint of all the good basic food ingredients that go into the making of nourishing and economical meals."

V.O.N. Supervisor On Bi-Annual Visit

MISS ESTHER ROBERTSON

National office supervisor for Victorian Order of Nurses in western Canada, Miss Esther Robertson, arrived in Victoria on the week-end, on her biannual visit to branch offices of the order.

Victoria is one of 17 western branches in Miss Robertson's territory, which begins at Port Arthur.

While here, the supervisor, who is from the head office in Ottawa, is making a statistical analysis of V.O.N. service.

"At this time, we're specially interested in the Victoria service," she stated, "as last year the board here reduced nursing staff and increased automobiles, thus decreasing 'nurse power' wastage and increasing the actual service given to patients."

"The new development is providing successful," she said, "last year, with eight staff nurses, 6,896 visits were made. This year, with only six nurses—but each with a car—there have been 7,127 visits."

Miss Robertson also pointed out that this year, the main interest has been in chronic and cancer service.

Working with the V.O.N. for over 12 years, this Alberta-born nurse, had special training in Montreal, where she took a public health course at McGill University. She has held her present position for four years, and only recently returned from New York, where she spent four months completing studies for her Bachelor of Science degree in nursing, majoring in administration and supervision.

Centre Provides Varied Training For War-Blinded

BRIGHTON, England (CP) — Here from Montreal on exchange with a Brighton schoolteacher, Miss Ruby H. Prew now is an enthusiastic supporter of St. Dunstan's training course for war-blinded ex-servicemen at nearby Ovingdean.

She was taken there by Miss Ann German, a Toronto nurse who since 1942 has been a Braille teacher at the centre.

"I don't think I have ever spent a more interesting or inspiring day," the Montreal teacher said. "The whole place seemed to be afire with zeal and enthusiasm."

"I sat in at one of the daily discussion groups and heard blinded veterans of both wars talking over the news of the day, its significance and its likely effect on world trade, security and peace."

Afterwards Miss Prew watched veterans playing darts in the clubroom and fencing in the gymnasium.

"I would never have believed it possible," she said, "yet is

British Housewives Given Cooking Tips

LONDON (CP)—Every week the British Food Ministry spends £3,000 ($12,000) telling housewives how to get the best value out of their rationed foods.

"Food Facts," an advertisement containing recipes and cooking hints, is published regularly in 1,000 papers from small weeklies to dailies with circulations in the millions.

Ministry officials say about one woman in 10 faithfully tries out the recipes. Three in 10 cut them out for future reference. Others read or make use of them occasionally.

Recipes are worked out by nutrition experts and cooked in an experimental kitchen. Ministry employees—doormen, messengers and clerical workers—volunteer to try the finished product before it is passed on to the public.

Most popular recipes have been those which show how to fry fish with a minimum of fat, or to make cakes and puddings requiring little sugar.

About 1,500 of Britain's 12,000,000 housewives are quizzed every week to determine what use they are making of the advice.

Guide to Hair Trick—Perhaps you have tried out a new hair-do. A compliment paid to your appearance will serve as a guide to other tricks which you will want to try out. If, however, a new hair-do passes unnoticed or if compliments are reserved you may have chosen an unflattering style.

Cadboro Bay Busy Regatta Scene

Down on the foreshore of the Royal Victoria Yacht Club, a group of yachtsmen head along the floats for the nearby craft as regatta activity increases with the approach of the many sailing races scheduled for the next few days.

John Lock, Seattle Yacht Club, aboard Angelica in the AA cruising class, was winner of the Swiftsure Trophy Tuesday afternoon as the Pacific International Yachting Association regatta got under way with long-distance races by more than 100 large sailing vessels from Bedford Harbor to the Cadboro Bay entrance, where Royal Victoria Yacht Club has its anchorage.

Second vessel to cross the finish line in the AA class was Hawk, skippered by J. E. McPherson, Vancouver. Circe, owned by Ray Cook, Seattle Yacht Club, won third place.

Although the day was warm and enjoyable for many, the light winds were unfavorable for the yachtsmen and several classes which started out from Bedford Harbor failed to complete the course by deadline time.

First place in the A class went to Gossip, designed and skippered by George Kettenburg, San Diego.

X racing class honors went to Ono, owned by Percy Burr, Royal Vancouver Yacht Club, whose vessel took first place, and Intrepid, owned and skippered by Dr. David Dale, Corinthian Yacht Club, which took second place.

Riskin, owned by Robert Ross, Corinthian Yacht Club, took first place in the Y racing class, while second place was taken by Fun, sailed by George Cran, Royal Vancouver Yacht Club.

Vessels of the B, C and D cruising class and the Z racing class were unable to complete the course within the deadline time because of the weather.

With 10 this morning as the first starting time, Blue Stars, Six Metre models, Evergreens, Stars and other classes are competing in further racing events.

Today is the day for the predicted log race for the "Pacific Motorboat" Cup. Finish time is 5.30 this afternoon.

This afternoon, in the small boat division, the smaller craft are beginning their series of races, with the first starting time set at 1.

First of the official social events also begin today with a yachtsman dinner, swimming party and opening dance.

Thousands Expected At Duncan For Gala July 1 Carnival

DUNCAN—This up-island city is donning its best bib and tucker to be all ready for the thousands of men, women and children who will converge on the centre of town for the grand parade at 10.45 Thursday morning, which will start the annual Duncan Dominion Day carnival.

They will come by boat, bus, train and automobile for an affair which has been growing in color, interest and variety each year.

The always popular loggers' sports when husky men of the woods take a busman's holiday to show their brawn and skill in everything from tree chopping to wire-rope splicing, will highlight the general sports program.

A horse show with approximately 150 horses expected to compete in the various events to be staged by the Cowichan District Riding Club will provide more entertainment. There will be softball games and a grand carnival dance in the Agricultural Hall in the evening to round out the day's activities.

Crowning of the Lumber Queen, Miss Eleanor Ferguson, by Dorothy Cook, last year's queen, will take place in Athletic Park following the parade. The attendants will be Jeanne Meyland of Shawnigan Lake; Sheila Burnett of Lake Cowichan; Rosa Drom of Duncan, and Joan Saunders of Chemainus.

All preparations for the great day are completed by the executive committee, under chairmanship of M. M. Hopton. Many colorful floats are entered from the various organizations and industries while bands which will participate are: Canadian Scottish, Victoria Girls' Pipe, Fairbridge Farm and Cowichan District. The Oak Bay Girls' Drill Team will also take part in the parade.

C. S. Ferguson has been appointed carnival manager. Duncan and District Baseball Association will stage a special exhibition game in the evening at Athletic Park.

Honor, Fair Play Vital To Democracy, Students Told

SHAWNIGAN LAKE—Failure to adhere to a code of honor is like "a cancerous sore eating at the vitals of democracy," Professor Thorlief Larsen of the University of British Columbia told students, their parents and friends at the annual speech day exercises of Shawnigan Lake School.

"Playing the game is as important in later life as it is in school," Prof. Larsen told the students, adding that the democratic ideal was seldom recognized in any society because so many people failed to play the game.

He said that fair play could best be absorbed during sports activity at school. A. Sullivan and Maj. H. J. Lake, acting for his father, Sir Richard Lake, spoke to the students. On the platform were: C. W. Lonsdale, headmaster; J. Y. Copeman, Hew Paterson and Capt. J. D. Groves, governors of the school.

Prizes were awarded as follows:

Form I, A. Robertson; II, G. S. Thorp; III, T. O. Davis; Remove A, L. O. Louis; IV, J. C. McKay, H. F. Steeper; V, A. Parke; VI, G. E. Dunn; VII, S. G. Milbrad. Classics, T. H. Gowan; general progress, I. E. E. de Grandcourt; 2, G. B. Webster; 3, J. F. Burr; efficiency, Michaelmas term, A. A. Parke; Lent term, W. F. Day; summer term, J. T. Billings. House cups—Sports, Groves' House; cricket, Lake's House; Grogan tennis cup, T. C. Thee; sportsmanship cup, T. R. Purnam.

60 At Alumni Dance At Lake Cowichan

LAKE COWICHAN—The Lake Cowichan High School alumni dance was held in the community hall here with 60 attending, including the teaching staff of the high school, who were guests of the students.

The hall was decorated with a profusion of flowers and the school colors of blue and gold. The committee in charge were:

Eva Brown, Yvonne Frazer, Sally Langhammer, Jack Saywell, Art Lovatt and Lyall Baigent. A birthday cake, elaborately decorated in blue and gold, and with Lake Cowichan Alumni, '46, '47 and '48, held the place of honor at the sitdown supper. Coke bar was presided over by Billy Saywell.

Harry Dreaney, Jack Saywell, Art Lovatt, Lyall Baigent and Jerry Moulin played for the dance.

Lyall Baigent toasted the new graduating class, and Sheila Burnett replied. The high school principal, J. F. T. Saywell, proposed a toast to the Alumni, and Oscar Paulsson replied.

Alumni officers for 1948 elected were Arthur Lovatt, president, and Laura Smith, secretary-treasurer. Sally Langhammer is editor of the Alumni Bulletin.

Urge Liquor Makers Care For Alcoholics

EDMONTON (CP)—Hospital care of alcoholics at the expense of brewers and distillers was urged Monday night by the Baptist Union of Western Canada. In a resolution adopted before closing its annual conference, the union resolved "that our governments be requested to impose a special tax on breweries and distilleries in order that from their excessive profits, revenues may be obtained to cover the cost of hospitalization of chronic alcoholics."

U.S. Admiral Visits City Aboard Flagship Duluth

Flying the flag of Rear-Admiral Francis X. McInerney, U.S.N., Commander Cruiser Division 15, the U.S. light cruiser Duluth arrived in Victoria this morning, carrying 302 reserve midshipmen, to begin a week's goodwill visit to Greater Victoria.

As she approached Esquimalt Harbor, her guns boomed out a 21-gun national salute which was returned from shore by 25-pounders of the Royal Canadian Artillery at Macaulay Point, under the command of Lieut. L. E. Sparks.

Admiral McInerney, at a press interview, aboard his flagship, said the main reason for the visit is because of the reserve midshipmen who come from colleges across the U.S. They are undergoing three weeks' training aboard Duluth and, the admiral said, the U.S.N. was most anxious for them to visit a Canadian port and meet members of the Canadian navy.

BACK FROM CHINA DUTY

The U.S. admiral only recently returned aboard Duluth from China where the ship did eight months' duty. During this time, she spent two months in Japanese waters, during which time Admiral McInerney was aboard another ship. Although commissioned in 1944 and on active duty since that time, Duluth has only spent four months of her career so far in U.S. ports.

On the cruiser's arrival at the jetty at the government drydock, the admiral was greeted on board by Leo J. Callanan, U.S. consul here who is to be transferred shortly, and Paul Meyer, who will succeed Mr. Callanan in Victoria as consul.

On their departure, a seven-gun salute was fired from Duluth. Admiral McInerney then went on his official rounds. He first visited Rear-Admiral E. R. Main, O.B.E., R.C.N., Flag-Officer Pacific Coast, at 10.30. At 11.05, he paid his respects to Lieutenant-Governor Charles A. Banks at Government House, and at 11.45, met Premier Byron Johnson at the Legislative Buildings.

The calls are being returned this afternoon. First aboard was Admiral Main, then Lieutenant-Governor Banks, then Premier Johnson and at 3.45 this afternoon, Mayor Percy George of Victoria, Reeve A. I. Thomas of Esquimalt and Maj. C. H. Jarvis-Read, E.D., officer in charge of Work Point Barracks.

SERVED WITH DISTINCTION

Duluth, a light cruiser of the Vincennes class, was commissioned in September, 1944, and although getting a late start, she served with distinction in the closing phases of the Pacific war. She displaces 12,000 tons, is 408 feet long and carries a main battery of six-inch guns. Her full complement is 78 officers, 1,188 men and 41 marines. This has been reduced due to peacetime and cruiser requirements to about 50 officers, 725 men and 40 marines.

She is commanded by Capt. Burton Davis, U.S.N., who saw much active service during the war and was awarded the Legion of Merit, among other decorations.

Admiral McInerney earned distinction during the war in destroyers in the South Pacific. For this service he was awarded the Navy Cross, the Silver Star, the Bronze Star, the Commendation Ribbon, the Presidential Unit Citation and other decorations. Later in the war, he served on Admiral William Halsey's staff, was chief of staff for the Pacific Training Command and commanded the battleship Washington.

The reserve midshipmen contingent aboard Duluth is under the command of the professor of naval science and tactics at the University of Southern California, Capt. Burnett K. Culver, U.S.N., and has representatives of every college having naval Reserve Officers' Training Corps units except for Holy Cross University.

These midshipmen are either in their sophomore or senior year at college. They are not part of the Holloway plan and most will elect to go into the inactive reserve after being commissioned as reserve ensigns. As they have not received any schooling at the expense of the navy other than technical naval training, they are not obliged to serve for any specific time after graduation. They have entered the program voluntarily after having entered college. As such they will prove a valuable addition to the continuing reserve program.

Distinguished civilians who have been invited by the Navy Department to make the cruise include Dr. A. S. Raubenheimer, vice-president of the University of Southern California.

Logging Truck Turns Over; Driver Unhurt

CHEMAMINUS—Arthur T. McDiarmid, Duncan, emerged unhurt from an accident to one of the McDiarmid-Smith Logging Co. trucks he was driving on the Island Highway Tuesday. According to Constable T. J. Kelly of the Chemaminus B.C. Police detachment, the truck, loaded with five huge logs, turned over on its side after a fire blowout. The logs went spinning for 100 yards after the force of the impact had torn loose the holding chains.

Bombers Stretch Margin With Close Win Over Boosters

With Bill Prior taking over in the eighth and fanning all five batters he faced, Ben's Bombers successfully staved off a steady up-hill battle waged by the cellar-dwelling Boosters to eke out a 4 to 3 win, stretching their undefeated skin to 12 straight.

Veteran Lloyd Cann started on the hill for the leaders and hurled the win, but was touched up for eleven safeties, including a triple and three doubles before going out in favor of Prior.

Boosters opened the scoring in the second on a pair of walks and singles by Art Worth and Jim Harford, but their lead was short-lived as Bombers jumped on Worth for all their tallies in the last of the third. Doubles by Wally Thomson, Al Duz and Earl Phillips, singles by Denny Fawcett and Ron Castner and a walk did the damage.

Losers made a game bid to pull it out of the fire, notching singletons in the fourth and sixth, but ran up against a stone wall in Prior.

Tonight at Athletic Park, Frank Mackintosh's up-and-coming Navy squad will battle Pitzer & Nex, starting at 7.

Short score follows: R. W. E. Boosters 3 11 3 Ben's Bombers 4 9 1

Worth and Harford; Cann; Prior (8) and Phillips.

Athletics Nip Tars To Gain On Loop Leaders

Jim Propst Hurls Victory; Palmer Stars At Plate; Tacoma Tigers Here Tomorrow

The Athletics squared their three-game series with Bremerton Bluejackets at one game apiece last night behind the effective twirling of Jim Propst and Joe Blankenship and the timely clouting of Jack Palmer, Babe Jensen and Lou Kubiak.

Combined with Vancouver's 13 to 10 victory over Tacoma at Tigertown, the win kept the A's in fourth place, two percentage points behind the Caps, and moved the locals within seven and a half games of the league-leading Tigers and four games off the runner-up Bluejackets.

Tonight the A's round out their string with Bremerton and return home for an important five-game stand against Tacoma starting with the holiday split twin-bill tomorrow at 2:30 and 8.

The clubs play a single game Friday night and two on Saturday to close out the series here. The A's then leave for Tacoma where they meet the Tigers in doubleheaders, Sunday and Monday.

Propst started for the A's in last night's tilt and held the Jackets in check for seven innings before being relieved by Blankenship in the eighth.

After Palmer's first inning home run the Athletics were never headed although Bremerton had the tying run and winning runs on base in the last of the ninth. Blankenship forced pinch hitter Keith Simon to ground out to end the game.

In the third inning, the A's scored two runs. Kubiak singled and scored all the way from first on Palmer's double. Wilson then singled to score Palmer.

Bremerton came back to count two runs in their half of the fourth inning on Sameoff's three-base hit and Harlow's double.

The A's tallied singletons in the fifth and eighth but were hard pressed in the last two innings as Bremerton picked up four of their nine base hits to score one run.

Palmer with a home run, double and single and Jensen and Kubiak, each with three singles, paced the club in the 13-hit attack on Joe Sullivan, ex-major league lefthander. Sal Recca picked up two for two, including a double in his two trips to the plate.

If manager Ted Norbert sticks with his regular starting assignments, Len Kasparovitch should get the nod tonight with Del Owens and Joe Blankenship or Frank Logue set for duty tomorrow against Tacoma.

In downing Tacoma, Vancouver slashed out 18 base hits, 13 in the last five innings. Four Tacoma pitchers shared hill duty with Manager Jim Brillheart finishing up. Hank Anderson was the winner and started at the plate by driving in four runs for the Caps. Frank Mullens batted in three with a homer and two singles.

Spokane evened its series with Salem at a game apiece in another free-scoring contest, 15 to 5. The Indians picked up 19 hits while Frank Nelson was being touched for nine by the Senators.

A double by pitcher Stan Gilson and a single by Jesse Mc-

Williams accounted for the winning run in the ninth inning as Wenatchee Chiefs edged Yakima 7 to 6. The Packers led 4 to 0 in the third on Charlie Peterson's two-run homer. Jerry Gardner's two-run smash tied the score for the Chiefs in the eighth and set the stage for the victory.

J.B.A.A. Turn Back Foul Bay In Thriller

In a thrilling box lacrosse tilt J.B.A.A. and Foul Bay Toledo Scales kept fans on the edge of their seats till the end last night as J.B.A.A. took a close one, 13 to 12. James Bay came from behind in the last period and staved off a fighting Foul Bay team who were still pressing when the game ended.

It was a nip and tuck struggle from the start as Norm Coates bagged the first goal for the Blue-shirts. Jack Thompson tied it up and Vic Sage sent the Gonzales boys into a 2 to 1 lead at the end of the period.

Oarsmen got away to a good start in the second session and notched three quick counters to take a 4 to 3 edge, but their advantage was a short-lived as Foul Bay scored four in a row. James Bay then knotted the count for the fourth time at 6 to 6. Toledo Scale boys again forged ahead to be on long end of a 7 to 6 score at the breather.

After the interval both teams played improved lacrosse and the netminders had their busiest time, each turning aside nine drives. Foul Bay outscored the winners in this frame, getting the odd goal in three, to hold a 9 to 7 margin at the three-quarter mark.

GREAT LAST QUARTER

Coach Harry Sargison's proteges showed signs of new life going down the home-stretch. After Jimmy Pickford had squared things at 9 all, Foul Bay suffered a bad break as a pass was deflected from Dick Chung-games' stick into his own goal.

Two quick markers by an inspired Rynski and another "fule goal, this one bounding off Sage, made matters look gloomy in the Foul Bay camp.

Trailing 13 to 9, the Gonzales crew would not give up but fought back strongly. Successive counters by Thompson, Sage and Coates of Foul Bay almost snatched the game out of the fire, but the timekeeper's gong sounded with J.B.A.A. clinging to their 13 to 12 margin.

It was the best encounter of the season, as both squads played good lacrosse, featuring neat passing. Rynski, Bamford and Coates of the winners, and Sage of the losers, all counted three goals each to head the scoring parade.

Teams and scorers follow:

J.B.A.A.—Atkins, Rynski 3, Green 2, Bamford 2, Denon 1, Winter, Coates 2, Baker, Reid, Pickford 1, Costello, Moffat, Kamann.

Foul Bay—A. Thompson, Gower 1, Malcolm, Thomas, Sage 3, Chung-games 2, Taylor 1, J. Thompson 2, Hudson 2, W. Scott 1, Shubert.

SIGN OUTFIELDER

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — A new outfielder was picked up out of the semi-pro ranks today by Oakland Oaks of the Coast League. He is Don Napoli, 21, a right-handed thrower and batter. He has played for Salinas Junior College and semi-pro at Pacific Grove where his batting average was .431.

CRICKET PRACTICE

The Ex-R.A.F. cricket team will hold a practice at Macdonald Park tomorrow at 7.

ALBERTA SOCCER

CALGARY (CP) — Calgary Astras and Edmonton Legion meet Saturday in the first game of a two-game, total goal series for the right to further advance in the Dominion soccer playoffs. The Alberta winner will meet the British Columbia champion in the western semifinal.

Bobby Allen In One-Hit Performance

With pitcher Bobby Allen tossing a neat one hitter, Pacific Meat trounced Eagles, 15 to 1, in a midget baseball game last night. The only hit allowed was a triple and that was the only runner to reach base in the game.

Spencers defeated Noble's Warriors, 6 to 4, in another midget game. Art Dawes and Paul Beck pitched for the winners.

In a bantam tilt, Farmer's All-Stars trounced J. H. & E., 15 to 2.

B.C. Crack Golfers Complete Cup Tests On Mainland Courses

VANCOUVER (CP) — Eighteen top contenders for berths on the B.C. Willingdon Cup team will play a final 36-hole match Thursday, but the top three places have generally been conceded to Percy Clogg, Walt McElroy and Bill Mawhinney.

Clogg, B.C. amateur champion and automatic choice, will lead the first threesome at Point Grey course. Afternoon matches will be played at Marine Drive. Selection of McElroy and Mawhinney, although not official, is favored by critics and fellow-contenders.

However, Joe Howat, secretary of the B.C. Golf Association, said the race for the two open spots is "wide open." The B.C.G.A. will choose the team following the tourney.

The Alberta team of Johnny Aitken, Burns, Martell, Buddy Lottus and Duane Barr is considered one of the British Columbia's chief stumbling blocks for the Canadian title.

Thursday's draw is: Jack Reynolds, Dr. George Bigelow and Percy Clogg; Doug Bajus, Gordon Verley and Doug Morrison; Bill Mawhinney, Hughie Morrison and Vic Painter; Lyle Lurshman, George Thomas and Ken Lee; Walt McElroy, Jack Ellis and Jim Robertson; Bob Plamher, Walt McAlpine and John Berry.

Jersey Joe Not Impressed With Tournament Plans

NEW YORK (AP) — It's been less than five days since Joe Louis laid his crown aside but already there is considerable stirring in heavyweight boxing ranks.

Here are the rapid-fire developments:

1. Ezzard Charles, Cincinnati light-heavy rated a leading contender, is reported ready to "fight from 1 to 10" for the championship and, as a starter, is signed to meet Jimmy Blinovs of Cleveland in Washington Aug. 2.

2. Gus Lesnevich, world's light heavyweight champion who is one of the "big three" in the heavy picture that includes Charles and Jersey Joe Walcott expressed delight over the prospect of a September bout with Walcott.

3. Walcott said he didn't think much of a proposed tournament to decide Louis' successor. He figured his two bouts with the Brown Bomber earned him a sort of "crown prince" role and that he should fight either Charles or Lesnevich, not both, for the title.

4. Jack Solomons, leading British promoter, counted himself in on the deal and announced he plans to have a part in the series to determine the new champion.

LESNEVICH IN ENGLAND

Lesnevich arrived in England yesterday for the July 26 defence of his light heavy title against England's Freddie Mills. He said he thought a fight with Walcott would be "any boxer's dream."

The 175-pound king was accompanied by Solomons, who announced plans to get into the heavyweight act. Solomons said he wanted to match Bruce Woodcock, British Empire heavyweight against Lee Savold, Tami Mauriello or Toronto's Vern Escoe next September, with the winner taking on the Lesnevich-Mills victor.

Joey Pyle Scores 5th Round Kayo In Fight At Seattle

SEATTLE (AP) — Joey Maxim of Cleveland Tuesday night used his reliable left to tap out a 10-round decision over Bill Peterson, Seattle.

Referee Jack Dempsey had almost as heavy a workout as the fighters, wading through them in the frequent clinches. Maxim was reluctant to mix with Peterson, holding the bigger man at long range to protect a left eye cut badly in recent fights.

Joey Pyle, Montreal, 147, outlasted Charley O'Kelly, 145, St. Louis, to win by a knockout in the fifth round of a scheduled 10-round semi-wind-up.

O'Kelly had a healthy margin over the taller Pyle when they came out for the fifth. The pair stood head-to-head and toe-to-toe and slugged until something had to drop. O'Kelly at last going down from a chopping right to the jaw. The end came 15 seconds before the end of the round.

PYLE DOWN IN FIRST

Pyle himself was down once, O'Kelly dropping him with a series of looping lefts and rights in the first round.

Eddie Cotton, 161, Seattle, was unable to drop Roy Wouters, 158, Vancouver, B.C., but cut him so badly in four rounds of their scheduled six-rounder that referee Jimmie Wilson stopped the fight and gave the edge to Cotton by a technical knockout.

Another Vancouver boy, Eddie Helms, 136, won an unpopular split decision from Carl Arakaki, 133, Honolulu, in a four-rounder.

Art King To Fight Empire Champion

TORONTO (CP) — Subject to terms, Toronto's Arthur King will fight England's Bill Thompson for the British Empire lightweight title in London, England, July 26, Benny Huntman announced Tuesday.

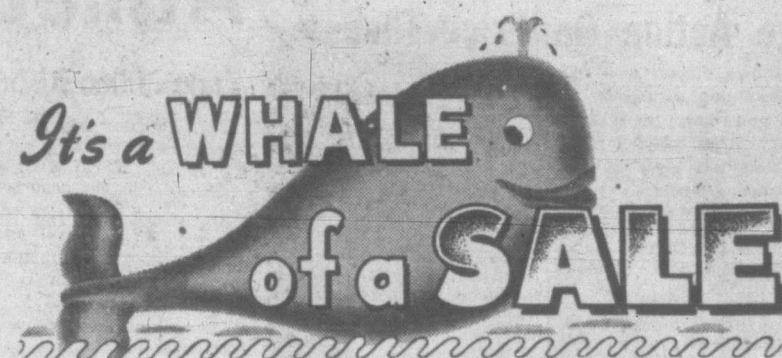

Huntman, Thompson's manager, said he was returning to England on Sunday to arrange details.

The bout would replace a match scheduled for Toronto tonight which was canceled because of a disagreement over officials.

David Yack, manager of King, said there were three details to be settled. "The first is: Can we get any money? The other two don't count."

VICTORIA CLUB GOLF

A mixed greensome will take place at Victoria Golf Club Friday. Players are requested to arrange own games and starting times. A buffet supper will follow. Victoria Club women defeated Gorge Vale, seven matches to nil, in an interclub match yesterday.

27 Licenses Suspended In June For Dangerous Driving; $1,400 In Fines

Twenty-seven motorists had their driving licenses suspended and fines totaling $1,380, were levied in Victoria and district police courts during June in the determined drive of police to stamp out dangerous driving and failing to return to scenes of accidents.

Police officials report action will be maintained with court proceedings to try and educate the public to handle their machines with more care.

They point out still more care should be exercised by those in charge of vehicles during the summer months. This is due to the fact motor traffic on the highways and the population of walking and bicycle-riding children is much heavier than during other months of the year.

The month concluded saw three persons killed in highway accidents. They took place in the city, Saanich and the local B.C. area of jurisdiction. There have been six traffic deaths in the district this year.

17 CITY CONVICTIONS

Eighteen persons appeared before Magistrate H. C. Hall in the city on dangerous driving counts. Sixteen were convicted. One charge was withdrawn and the other dismissed. The 16 paid $530. Thirteen of the drivers had their licenses suspended for one month, the others three months each.

Two of that number, failing to return to accident scenes, had convictions recorded against them. Each was fined $40, no additional suspension time added. One other was fined $25 on the same charge.

Oak Bay continued to keep a pretty clean record. There was one conviction, drawing a $40 fine, and a month's suspension.

The Esquimalt total was four dangerous driving cases. Each received a $40 fine. One had his license withheld for three months, two got one-month suspensions and the fourth was ordered not to drive for other than business purposes for two months.

Provincial court fines assessed by A. L. Thomas aggregated $190. Two were for dangerous driving and the others for failing to come back to an accident they were involved in. One had his license withheld for six months by the justice of the peace.

Eight motorists in Saanich were fined $275 on dangerous driving charges, one of this number getting a three-month lifting of his license, the others one month.

NOT ALL CHARGES FROM ACCIDENTS

Other drivers charged during the month have not had their cases finished with in the courts. In one case where a Chinese suffered compound fractures of both legs a couple of months ago, the trial has been remanded week to week. Injured man is wanted at the trial as a witness.

Majority of the charges of dangerous driving arose from accidents, but there were some laid for motorists who traveled at such high speeds or in such reckless ways as to be a menace to life and property.

A Chief John Blackstock of the city police advises drivers to have good tires on their vehicles in the hot weather. Poor tires, he says, are liable to go out at dangerous times when other cars are passing. In many cases like these collisions happen, he said.

Chief Gilbert Stancombe of Esquimalt points out the law provides that all motorists must slow down to 15 miles an hour in approaching or passing parks or playgrounds where signs are displayed between dawn and dusk.

White House May Get Presidential Whisker Of Entirely New Type

WASHINGTON (AP)—If Thomas E. Dewey is elected President of the United States he will bring the first presidential mustache to the White House since William Howard Taft left there 35 years ago.

Only nine of the 33 men who have been President have worn whiskers. This foliage has varied in whisker content from the full, shaggy dog beard on James Abram Garfield to Taft's droopy handlebars.

Dewey would be the first to come up with the small, well-trimmed, bristle-brush type mustache. It is also learned:

The first President to go in for a beard was a Republican, Abraham Lincoln. He started something.

For though his immediate successor, Andrew Johnson, was beardless, the next six men to hold the job sported a splendid whisker crop.

William McKinley broke the monotony, but Theodore Roosevelt and Taft wore mustaches.

Anthropologist At Provincial Museum Retired Today

A. E. Pickford, anthropologist, at the Provincial Museum, retired today after 35 years in B.C. government service.

Now a recognized authority on B.C. Indians, their background and customs, Mr. Pickford was trained as a young man to be a horticulturist.

He attended Swanley Horticultural College, England, winning high credits in examinations held by the University of London. After graduation, he continued his studies in Normandy, France, under the famous botanist, Dr. Jules Planchon.

Returning to England, Mr. Pickford spent some time as a freelance nurseryman. He found he was not wholly satisfied with this work alone, however, and decided to take up land agency.

Qualifying after four years' study, he was made land registrar of a 1,000-acre estate.

After some time, he again became discontented and quit his job to come to Canada.

He found employment as a surveyor with the attorney-general's department in B.C., and after some years in this work was transferred to the forest branch. He was given the job of investigating forest regeneration on cut-over lands along the southern coastal area.

His recommendations were largely responsible for the establishment of a forest experimental station and the start of a government reforestation program.

His work putting him in continual contact with Indians throughout B.C., Mr. Pickford prepared a detailed study on "The Vegetable Foods of the Indians in B.C." which prompted his transfer to the museum to study fundamentals concerning Indian life.

During past year, Mr. Pickford has made a notable contribution to the known background of this province through his studies along this line.

'Lay Off' Police Warn Man Annoying Former Sweetheart

Co-operation of city detectives was sought by a city girl about to get married to stop a former sweetheart from his annoying tactics on the eve of her marriage.

Detectives saw the man and told him to "lay off."

The girl said she was to be married today and that her former suitor had been making annoying telephone calls to her future in-laws and herself.

Disease 'Dike' In Flooded Areas Holding Up Well

The provincial health department today reported its "dike" against the possible flood of communicable diseases in the formerly inundated areas of the province today was holding, but they warned that the "flood" may be only in its early stages to date.

To date the provincial laboratory staff has shipped out enough vaccine to immunize 58,000 persons against typhoid. The department warns, however, that immunization against typhoid fever does give protection against 100 or so varieties of communicable gastrointestinal infections such as dysentery and diseases of the paratyphoid-salmonella group.

"Because homes, barns, wells and yards have been grossly contaminated by dirty water, an unprecedented number of organisms capable of producing these diseases can probably be found in these areas," the department reports.

Although public health personnel inspect all vacated homes before they can be certificated safe for occupancy, epidemiologists feel that continued high standards of sanitation must be maintained for months in every home, even those not directly affected by floods, to counteract these new threats of disease. The danger from communicable infections will be present while makeshift methods of water supply and sewage and garbage disposal exist, the department said.

The department asked all residents of flooded areas to continue boiling water for domestic use until provincial laboratory tests indicate that their water supply is safe.

Residents of the flood areas are urged to report symptoms of communicable disease to family physicians just as soon as they occur.

No Living Bonus For Federal Pensioners

OTTAWA (CP)—Finance Minister Abbott reiterated Tuesday night in the Commons the government felt it could not pay a cost-of-living bonus to superannuated civil servants.

He told Stanley Knowles, C.C.F., Winnipeg North Centre, that government employees had contributed to a pension fund just the same as employees in other industries. The government felt it should not set a precedent by paying a cost-of-living bonus.

Mr. Knowles said there was no reason why the government should not be a model employer.

Butter Stocks Rise

OTTAWA (CP)—Stocks of creamery butter in nine principal cities June 25 totaled 12,923,000 pounds compared with 9,676,000 June 18, the Bureau of Statistics reported Tuesday.

No Progress Made On Ripple Rock

OTTAWA (CP)—Ripple Rock, famous shipping hazard off the coast of British Columbia, still is defying all efforts aimed at its removal, Works Minister Fournier told the Commons Tuesday.

He made the statement after Howard Green, P.C., Vancouver South, had asked the perennial question about work on removal of the rock.
"To date, really it is no more advanced than it was last year," said Mr. Fournier.
But, he added, the department had not given up hope that some day a way would be found to remove the submerged hazard.
The rock is located in Seymour Narrows north of Campbell River.
In a previous debate, the suggestion was advanced that the government try dropping an atomic bomb on the obstruction if all else failed.

Commission To Treat Drug, Liquor Victims

VANCOUVER (CP)—Ottawa is setting up a commission to deal with confirmed narcotic drug and liquor addicts.
Attorney-General Gordon Wismer announced Tuesday night at a meeting of the Pacific Coast International Law Enforcement Officials' Conference that the new commission would establish country-wide institutions in which drug and liquor addiction would be treated as diseases and not as felonies.
He said the commission would be composed of experts in medicine, psychiatry and law enforcement.

"MAN CATCHES PIG"

DEEP DOWN IN A VAULT... as I've told U before, lives my pal "Ed," who helps push open the door. For 80 years the tumbler he's heard, as the lock combination's been numbered and whirled. As I did, figuring it just now, so "Ed" & I... had another pow-wow.

But apart from "Ed" and twirling locks, do you need a cheap nice box? They're very cheap, would get U buy, delivered for seventeen-ninety-five.

"WELL," said "Ed," "how's things outside, are you taking it all... in your stride???" "Why yes," I said, "we're doing all right, but things are NOT good... out in the light, Ferinstance... most people give up the ghost when it comes to trying for the Sunday roast. And the price of milk, 'tis a luxury now, so over such things... there's quite a row."

A CUTE "ADMIRAL" in summer white... the best little radio to take when you go on leave... 5 tubes for $37.95 an amazing low price. "Tops In Tone"... also dressed in ebony or mahogany.

"Humph," said "Ed," "well here's how to save, when next the G.F. needs a permanent wave. You just go out and catch a pig. One with a tail unusually big. Then cut off the tail, and place in a pot, and cook till the water is boiling hot. Then strain it out, extracting the juice, then, rinse in her hair while down & loose. Slap her down if she won't behave, you can afford a roast with her PIGMENT WAVE."

A Labor Union says about Communism...

The following extract from a resolution passed at the Cleveland Convention of the International Typographical Union was sent under date of June 3, 1948, to every member of the Union in Canada and the United States:

"It is the sense of this convention that all true and loyal citizens of our great country must reflect the degree of tolerance permitted by the laws of our country with respect to political philosophies.

"It is the sense of this convention that any political philosophy containing advocacy of force and violence as a means of its attainment is contrary to our laws. Those using such methods are subject to punishment by law and they should be prosecuted in the American way.

"It is the judgment of this convention that those who now espouse communism as a political philosophy are being led by those who have absorbed the theories and practices of a foreign power which are contrary to our fundamental concept of freedom and democracy.

"Therefore we must tie to those communists who may be in this country and Canada the acts of those who have a government functioning under Communist principles.

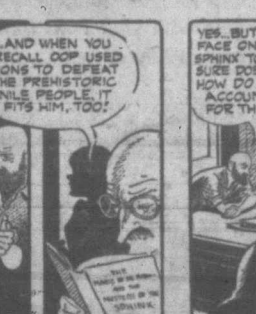

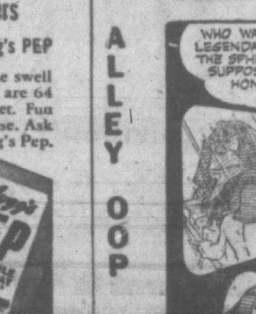

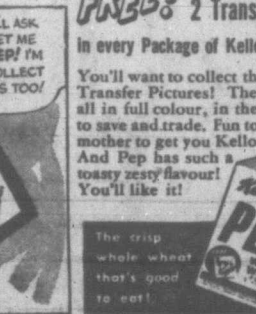

"We cannot accept the philosophy of Communism. We cannot accept as leaders, those who associate themselves with Communism as now advocated and practiced. We rely on the democratic principles of our country and the good sense of our people to keep these principles alive and functioning."

Non-Communist labor leaders are aware that under Communism labor unions lose their power and working people are enslaved by a ruling clique of bureaucrats.

Labor has a great stake in preserving and improving the Freedom System under which we live in North America.

Pioneers' Western Music Authentic

Bob Nolan and the Sons of the Pioneers refuse to compromise their type of authentic western music by adding trimmings that would not fit into the true picture as they conceive it.

The group, consisting entirely of strings, has never allowed either wind or percussion instruments within its ranks. As Bob Nolan says, "Only strings and voices are authentic mediums of expression for western folk music." Sons of the Pioneers will be at the York Theatre next Friday and Saturday.

RIO THEATRE

William Gargan and Nancy Kelly play man and wife in Paramount's new action comedy, "Follow That Woman," which is now at the Rio Theatre. Gargan portrays a private detective whose wife tries to "help" him. Her ambitions lead him into some pretty tough spots, and some hilarious situations. Regis Toomey, Byron Barr, Ed Gargan and Don Costello are in the supporting cast.

ATLAS THEATRE

One of the most spectacular sights in prewar London was revived for the screen, at least during the filming of "An Ideal Husband," the new 20th Century-Fox release starring Paulette Goddard, which was photo-

Jose Iturbi has a corner on pianos.

The two he uses in M-G-M's new Technicolor musical, "Three Daring Daughters," now showing at the Capitol Theatre, are but a drop in the bucket.

He owns 33 additional ones!

They are stored in 33 cities in the United States and when Iturbi appears for a concert, so does his piano.

He doesn't play two pianos in "Three Daring Daughters," but lends one to his sister, Amparo, who performs several duets with the star.

Jolson May Play In Sequel To Successful Movie

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Al Jolson says he "doesn't know" whether he'll portray himself in the "Jolson Story" sequel. That's the first time he has admitted there is a possibility. My guess is that he'll heed the call of grease paint and play the Larry Parks' role. (And don't tell me he's not the type.)

PLANS FOR JULIET

Olivia De Havilland's hopes of playing Shakespeare's Juliet on the stage will have to wait for her film career.

"I think I should have one picture in release and two finished before I take off time for the stage," she tells me. That means she'll do another film after "The Heiress" before embarking on "Romeo and Juliet." She made the unreleased "Snakepit" last year.

Charles Laughton, who is playing a hobo in the "Bribe," has high hopes that his Shakespearean reading group will evolve into a Hollywood repertory theatre. "This is the only place in the world where a great repertory theatre is possible," he says. "If an actor is good in New York or London, he eventually comes here."

ROYAL THEATRE

S. Z. Sakall, affectionately known to his co-workers as Yonny, plays the role of a kindly hotel proprietor in Warner Bros. gay musical comedy, "April Showers," which is now at the Royal Theatre. Hungarian-born Sakall first rose to prominence with his appearance in "Yankee Doodle Dandy," also a Warner hit.

DOMINION THEATRE

Roy Rogers made his acting "debut" in a role far different from the cowboy characterizations he does today in his Republic pictures, the latest of which, "Under California Stars," photographed in thrilling Technicolor, is currently at the Dominion Theatre. Roy made his bow before an audience at the tender age of eight, playing the part of Santa Claus in a grammar school show!

YORK THEATRE

There's always been too much talk about the weather—but, it has remained for Dennis Morgan to furnish the answer to end all questions.

In Warner Bros. "Two Guys From Milwaukee," now at the York, in which Morgan co-stars with Jack Carson and Joan Leslie, the latter asks: "The weather—how is it outside?"

Dennis Morgan replies: "Oh, it's still out there. Just plugging along."

CAPITOL THEATRE

The idea of making "The End of the River" was born in the mind of a young Englishman, Derek Twist. He was given the job of directing a film under the novel's American title. "The End of the River," That assignment took him to Brazil on what must have been the most adventurous location trip ever undertaken by a British film company.

OAK BAY THEATRE

Richard Basehart seems to have the self-assurance of anyone who has mastered an art. Acting is his business and business, lately, has been good. The young actor, who was discovered by the Broadway drama critics because of his performance in "The Hasty Heart," was signed to a long-term contract by Eagle-Lion Films and makes his debut co-starring with Louis Hayward and Joan Leslie in "Repeat Performance," currently at the Oak Bay Theatre.
